Valuable Information.

BOSTON, Dec. 12, 1869.

Gentlemen: My only object in giving you this estimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit, until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

C. H. TUCKER, Pas. Ag't Mich. C. R. R.
60 Washington street, Boston.

Every One Speaks Favorably,

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 31, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir: I have been troubled with Canker from childhood, causing my mouth to be sore at times, so that I was unable to eat. Have taken many preparations, but with no effect until I tried your VEGETINE. After taking a few doses, I found it relieved the faintness at the stomach that always accompanies Canker humor; and by the time I had taken the third bottle my mouth was entirely cured. Have not been troubled with it since that time, which is eight months ago. I have recommended it to several of my acquaintances; and every one speaks favorably of its good effect.

Yours truly P. S. SHERMAN.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, May 1, 1871.

DEAR SIR: This is to certify that I have sold at retail, sixty-three dozen (756 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy, for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am personally cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours, H. GILMAN,
To H. R. STEVENS, Esq. 468 Broadway.

FURTHER PROOF.

SPRINGFIELD, Me., May 4, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: My daughter has been out of health for about two years. About a year ago she had a tumor come on her side, which was very painful. I saw VEGETINE advertised in the Farmer, and sent to Bangor and got two bottles. She is now taking the second bottle; her health is much improved, and the tumor is going away as fast as it came. Every one in this vicinity knows what VEGETINE has done for my daughter, and I take very opportunity to recommend it to those who are unaware of its great value. Very respectfully,

MRS. SUSAN C. RANDALL.

QUALITY HILL.

[CONCLUDED.]

While thus the hidden affairs of the doctor's family were being discussed and stirred up in the Hollow, as a hen stirs among dead leaves, on the hill they were being covered over like the lost babes in the wood. It was never the Seacrest fashion to parade the family skeletons like the family jewels. So they ate and drank and laughed, and tried to look at the elderly bride without shuddering.

But the age was not the worst of it. She was homely. And her homeliness was not the worst; she was stiff and unattractive in person. And it was hardly the consolation that perhaps it should have been to perceive the unlimited fondness that the boy bridegroom had for his aged companion. For it is really a comfort, though a small one, to see our friends chafe under degradation. Accepting slavery with contentment makes the captive twice a slave.

However, the less the family felt like saying sweet things, the more they pressed the sugared cake, the ice cream and strawberries, upon their new member. But all this time there was something in the background waiting to be brought forward, and it was the bride who had the courage first to touch it.

"Earnest," she began, with the dominant air of an elderly aunt, "an explanation is due your father and mother—and sister," she added, glancing sharply at Miriam, who was fairly seasick with disgust, and sorrow and mortification.

"Yes, Lily, tell them," answered Earnest looking at her as though she were sugar candy.

The idea of calling that old, black, greasy thing "Lily."

"The truth is, then," said Lily, turning her withered face away from Earnest as though it cost her an effort, "by the will of the uncle from whom I had my money, unless I married before a certain date, I lost it all. And a kinsman, who was heir-at-law, was very anxious to inherit it."

"The old cur wanted Lily himself," interposed Earnest, "and he thought if he got her money he would be sure to get her. At any rate, he was resolved to have that. This is why he had to be so secret."

Miriam fairly groaned; and even fairy hearted Mrs. Seacrest dropped her napkin-ring on the floor, and came up from stooping for it with wet eyelashes. To think that Earnest had sold himself for this woman's gold! So Mrs. Woodcock, down in the hollow, was right, after all.

But as though she suspected the nature of their thoughts, Lily went on.

"I had some trouble in persuading Earnest," she said, looking at him fondly through her blue glasses, while she patted her gray curls and settled her cap. ("I knew you had!" ejaculated Mariam, inaudibly.) He had a foolish notion of waiting till after I had lost my property. But I had a right to it, and I wanted to keep it."

"We had a jolly time, though, dodging old Drymar. He is about discovering now, Lily, that he isn't so smart as he thought he was," said Earnest, bursting into a joyous laugh, and nobody felt the heart to join in.

Then he took from his pocket the marriage certificate, dated that very day. It seemed he had telegraphed to his father to meet him and his wife at the station not more than five minutes after she had become his wife.

"We had to turn pretty sharp corners to keep out of Drymar's way," continued Earnest, still chuckling. "He thought he had Lily safely locked in her room, while he sent for a justice, thinking he would frighten her into a marriage with him, or, at any rate, keep her away from other men till the day had gone by. But Lily was better at picking locks than he thought, and she came to me, poor thing, so out of breath and frightened!"

Earnest's voice grew tenderer and pitiful at the thought, and he took Lily's hand in his with a caressing gesture.

"I loved her ever since I have been in college, and she knew it, but we had to keep it to ourselves on old Drymar's account. And I was dying to marry her, but I didn't like the idea of marrying for money exactly. However, there wasn't any help for it then, mother, you see. Drymar was her legal guardian until she married, or was of a certain age.—So chum and I fixed her up in her bridal dress, and here we are!"

Upon that the irrepressible bridegroom got up and kissed his bride, then led her from the room, saying over his shoulder:

"We will be back directly."

When they were gone, a sorrowful sigh bubbled out of the mother's soul.

"Poor boy!" said she; "his heart is all right, and I cannot blame him."

"I blame him for falling in love with his grandmother, in the first place," said Miriam severely. "And her having money makes it all the more horrible. It seems so sordid, even though we may know better."

Almost before they had done speaking, they heard Earnest's steps on the stairs, and his voice in such loving, happy tones, that it sent a fresh pain through the listeners. Then he appeared with his bright, curling head and his sunny eyes like his mother's. But with him came, instead of the wrinkled old bride, a fair-faced, blushing girl, with a shower of golden hair, and all the beauty of youth and happiness on her sweet face. A lily truly, beautiful and pure.

"We had to fix her up that way, chum and I, for fear old Drymar would meet us," cried Earnest with a burst of boyish delight at the astonished and relieved faces of the family; "and it has been such fun to watch Miriam this evening. Father and mother kept in better."

"Mon Dieu! Do you call that little creature old enough to be Earnest's grandmother?" whispered Mademoiselle Widger to Mrs. Woodcock, leaning over her pew railing on the next Sabbath, as the Seacrests came into church.

Mrs. Woodcock looked, took off her glasses, wiped them, and looked again.

"Mercy on me! And I sat as near to her that day as I am to the minister now! How a body's eyes will deceive them!"

—There are miles in area in Boston in which a man cannot travel ten rods without being in the closest vicinity to places for the sale of liquor which the state police permit to sell and which pay tribute to them for the permission. It was to remove this most discreditable and demoralizing system of licensing that the state constabulary was abolished by the Legislature; and it is to preserve a body of men whose action is so objectionable that the Governor has interfered. We insist that neither His Excellency nor any one else shall claim to be consistent opponents of the license system while they sustain partial, irresponsible and venal licensing, such as is exhibited all about us under the present law.—Boston Post.

Valuable Information.

BOSTON, Dec. 12, 1869.

Gentlemen: My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit, until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

C. H. TUCKER, Pas. Ag't Mich. C. R. R.
69 Washington street, Boston.

Every One Speaks Favorably,

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 31, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir: I have been troubled with Canker from childhood, causing my mouth to be sore at times, so that I was unable to eat. Have taken many preparations, but with no effect until I tried your VEGETINE. After taking a few doses, I found it relieved the faintness at the stomach that always accompanies Canker humor; and by the time I had taken the third bottle my mouth was entirely cured. Have not been troubled with it since that time, which is eight months ago. I have recommended it to several of my acquaintances; and every one speaks favorably of its good effect.

Yours truly P. S. SHERMAN.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, May 1, 1871.

DEAR SIR: This is to certify that I have sold at retail, sixty-three dozen (756 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy, for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am personally cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours, H. GILMAN,
To H. R. STEVENS, Esq. 468 Broadway.

FURTHER PROOF.

SPRINGFIELD, Me., May 4, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: My daughter has been out of health for about two years. About a year ago she had a tumor come on her side, which was very painful. I saw VEGETINE advertised in the Farmer, and sent to Bangor and got two bottles. She is now taking the second bottle; her health is much improved, and the tumor is going away as fast as it came. Every one in this vicinity knows what VEGETINE has done for my daughter, and I take every opportunity to recommend it to those who do not know of its great value. Very respectfully,

MRS. SUSAN C. RANDALL.

QUALITY HILL.

[CONCLUDED.]

While thus the hidden affairs of the doctor's family were being discussed and stirred up in the Hollow, as a hen stirs among dead leaves, on the hill they were being covered over like the lost babes in the wood. It was never the Seacrest fashion to parade the family skeletons like the family jewels. So they ate and drank and laughed, and tried to look at the elderly bride without shuddering.

But the age was not the worst of it. She was homely. And her homeliness was not the worst; she was stiff and unattractive in person. And it was hardly the consolation that perhaps it should have been to perceive the unlimited fondness that the boy bridegroom had for his aged companion. For it is really a comfort, though a small one, to see our friends chafe under degradation. Accepting slavery with contentment makes the captive twice a slave.

However, the less the family felt like saying sweet things, the more they pressed the sugared cake, the ice cream and strawberries, upon their new member. But all this time there was something in the background waiting to be brought forward, and it was the bride who had the courage first to touch it.

"Earnest," she began, with the dominant air of an elderly aunt, "an explanation is due your father and mother—and sister," she added, glancing sharply at Miriam, who was fairly seasick with disgust, and sorrow and mortification.

"Yes, Lily, tell them," answered Earnest looking at her as though she were sugar candy.

The idea of calling that old, black, greasy thing "Lily."

"The truth is, then," said Lily, turning her withered face away from Earnest as though it cost her an effort, "by the will of the uncle from whom I had my money, unless I married before a certain date, I lost it all. And a kinsman, who was heir-at-law, was very anxious to inherit it."

"The old cur wanted Lily himself," interposed Earnest, "and he thought if he got her money he would be sure to get her. At any rate, he was resolved to have that. This is why he had to be so secret."

Miriam fairly groaned; and even fairy hearted Mrs. Seacrest dropped her napkin-ring on the floor, and came up from stooping for it with wet eyelashes. To think that Earnest had sold himself for this woman's gold! So Mrs. Woodcock, down in the hollow, was right, after all.

But as though she suspected the nature of their thoughts, Lily went on.

"I had some trouble in persuading Earnest," she said, looking at him fondly through her blue glasses, while she patted her gray curls and settled her cap. ("I knew you had!" ejaculated Mariam, inaudibly.) He had a foolish notion of waiting till after I had lost my property. But I had a right to it, and I wanted to keep it."

"We had a jolly time, though, dodging old Drymar. He is about discovering now, Lily, that he isn't so smart as he thought he was," said Earnest, bursting into a joyous laugh, and nobody felt the heart to join in.

Then he took from his pocket the marriage certificate, dated that very day. It seemed he had telegraphed to his father to meet him and his wife at the station not more than five minutes after she had become his wife.

"We had to turn pretty sharp corners to keep out of Drymar's way," continued Earnest, still chuckling. "He thought he had Lily safely locked in her room, while he sent for a justice, thinking he would frighten her into a marriage with him, or, at any rate, keep her away from other men till the day had gone by. But Lily was better at picking locks than he thought, and she came to me, poor thing, so out of breath and frightened!"

Earnest's voice grew tenderer and pitiful at the thought, and he took Lily's hand in his with a caressing gesture.

"I loved her ever since I have been in college, and she knew it, but we had to keep it to ourselves on old Drymar's account. And I was dying to marry her, but I didn't like the idea of marrying for money exactly. However, there wasn't any help for it then, mother, you see. Drymar was her legal guardian until she married, or was of a certain age.—So chum and I fixed her up in her bridal dress, and here we are!"

Upon that the irrepressible bridegroom got up and kissed his bride, then led her from the room, saying over his shoulder:

"We will be back directly."

When they were gone, a sorrowful sigh bubbled out of the mother's soul.

"Poor boy!" said she; "his heart is all right, and I cannot blame him."

"Blame him for falling in love with his grandmother, in the first place," said Miriam severely. "And her having money makes it all the more horrible. It seems so sordid, even though we may know better."

Almost before they had done speaking, they heard Earnest's steps on the stairs, and his voice in such loving, happy tones, that it sent a fresh pain through the listeners. Then he appeared with his bright, curling head and his sunny eyes like his mother's. But with him came, instead of the wrinkled old bride, a fair-faced, blushing girl, with a shower of golden hair, and all the beauty of youth and happiness on her sweet face. A lily truly, beautiful and pure.

"We had to fix her up that way, chum and I, for fear old Drymar would meet us," cried Earnest with a burst of boyish delight at the astonished and relieved faces of the family; "and it has been such fun to watch Miriam this evening. Father and mother kept in better."

"Mon Dieu! Do you call that little creature old enough to be Earnest's grandmother?" whispered Mademoiselle Widger to Mrs. Woodcock, leaning over her pew railing on the next Sabbath, as the Seacrests came into church.

Mrs. Woodcock looked, took off her glasses, wiped them, and looked again.

"Mercy on me! And I sat as near to her that day as I am to the minister now! How a body's eyes will deceive them!"

—There are miles in area in Boston in which a man cannot travel ten rods without being in the closest vicinity to places for the sale of liquor which the state police permit to sell and which pay tribute to them for the permission. It was to remove this most discreditable and demoralizing system of licensing that the state constabulary was abolished by the Legislature; and it is to preserve a body of men whose action is so objectionable that the Governor has interfered. We insist that neither His Excellency nor any one else shall claim to be consistent opponents of the license system while they sustain partial, irresponsible and venal licensing, such as is exhibited all about us under the present law.—Boston Post.

Valuable Information.

BOSTON, Dec. 12, 1869.

Gentlemen: My only object in giving you this estimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit, until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

Every One Speaks Favorably,

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 31, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir: I have been troubled with Canker from childhood, causing my mouth to be sore at times, so that I was unable to eat. Have taken many preparations, but with no effect until I tried your VEGETINE. After taking a few doses, I found it relieved the faintness at the stomach that always accompanies Canker humor; and by the time I had taken the third bottle my mouth was entirely cured. Have not been troubled with it since that time, which is eight months ago. We have recommended it to several of my acquaintances; and every one speaks favorably of its good effect.

Yours truly P. S. SHERMAN.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, May 1, 1871.

DEAR SIR: This is to certify that I have sold at retail, sixty-three dozen (756 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy, for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits or calling themselves or their friends. I am personally cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours, H. GILMAN,
To H. R. STEVENS, Esq. 468 Broadway.

FURTHER PROOF.

SPRINGFIELD, Me., May 4, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: My daughter has been out of health for about two years. About a year ago she had a tumor come on her side, which was very painful. I saw VEGETINE advertised in the Farmer, and sent to Bangor and got two bottles. She is now taking the second bottle; her health is much improved, and the tumor is going away as fast as it came. Every one in this vicinity knows what VEGETINE has done for my daughter, and I take very opportunity to recommend it to those who are ignoraware of its great value. Very respectfully,

MRS. SUSAN C. RANDALL.

QUALITY HILL.

[CONCLUDED.]

While thus the hidden affairs of the doctor's family were being discussed and stirred up in the Hollow, as a hen stirs among dead leaves, on the hill they were being covered over like the lost babes in the wood. It was never the Seacrest fashion to parade the family skeletons like the family jewels. So they ate and drank and laughed, and tried to look at the elderly bride without shuddering.

But the ordeal was not the worst of it. She was homely. And her homeliness was not the worst; she was stiff and unattractive in person. And it was hardly the consolation that perhaps it should have been to perceive the unlimited fondness that the boy bridegroom had for his aged companion. For it is really a comfort, though a small one, to see our friends chafe under degradation. Accepting slavery with contentment makes the captive twice a slave.

However, the less the family felt like saying sweet things, the more they pressed the sugared cake, the ice cream and strawberries, upon their new member. But all this time there was something in the background waiting to be brought forward, and it was the bride who had the courage first to touch it.

"Earnest," she began, with the dominant air of an elderly aunt, "an explanation is due your father and mother—and sister," she added, glancing sharply at Miriam, who was fairly seasick with disgust, and sorrow and mortification.

"Yes, Lily, tell them," answered Earnest looking at her as though she were sugar candy.

The idea of calling that old, black, greasy thing "Lily."

"The truth is, then," said Lily, turning her withered face away from Earnest as though it cost her an effort, "by the will of the uncle from whom I had my money, unless I married before a certain date, I lost it all. And a kinsman, who was heir-at-law, was very anxious to inherit it."

"The old cur wanted Lily himself," interposed Earnest, "and he thought if he got her money he would be sure to get her. At any rate, he was resolved to have that. This is why he had to be so secret."

Miriam fairly groaned; and even fairy hearted Mrs. Seacrest dropped her napkin-ring on the floor, and came up from stooping for it with wet eyelashes. To think that Earnest had sold himself for this woman's gold! So Mrs. Woodcock, down in the hollow, was right, after all.

But as though she suspected the nature of their thoughts, Lily went on.

"I had some trouble in persuading Earnest," she said, looking at him fondly through her blue glasses, while she patted her gray curls and settled her cap. ("I knew you had!" ejaculated Mariam, inaudibly.) He had a foolish notion of waiting till after I had lost my property. But I had a right to it, and I wanted to keep it."

"We had a jolly time, though, dodging old Drymar. He is about discovering now, Lily, that he isn't so smart as he thought he was," said Earnest, bursting into a joyous laugh, and nobody felt the heart to join in.

Then he took from his pocket the marriage certificate, dated that very day. It seemed he had telegraphed to his father to meet him and his wife at the station not more than five minutes after she had become his wife.

"We had to turn pretty sharp corners to keep out of Drymar's way," continued Earnest, still chuckling. "He thought he had Lily safely locked in her room, while he sent for a justice, thinking he would frighten her into a marriage with him, or, at any rate, keep her away from other men till the day had gone by. But Lily was better at picking locks than he thought, and she came to me, poor thing, so out of breath and frightened!"

Earnest's voice grew tenderer and pitiful at the thought, and he took Lily's hand in his with a caressing gesture.

"I loved her ever since I have been in college, and she knew it, but we had to keep it to ourselves on old Drymar's account. And I was dying to marry her, but I didn't like the idea of marrying for money exactly. However, there wasn't any help for it then, mother, you see. Drymar was her legal guardian until she married, or was of a certain age.—So chum and I fixed her up in her bridal dress, and here we are!"

Upon that the irrepressible bridegroom got up and kissed his bride, then led her from the room, saying over his shoulder:

"We will be back directly."

When they were gone, a sorrowful sigh bubbled out of the mother's soul.

"Poor boy!" said she; "his heart is all right, and I cannot blame him."

"To blame him for falling in love with his grandmother, in the first place," said Miriam severely. "And her having money makes it all the more horrible. It seems so sordid, even though we may know better."

Almost before they had done speaking, they heard Earnest's steps on the stairs, and his voice in such loving, happy tones, that it sent a fresh pain through the listeners. Then he appeared with his bright, curling head and his sunny eyes like his mother's. But with him came, instead of the wrinkled old bride, a fair-faced, blushing girl, with a shower of golden hair, and all the beauty of youth and happiness on her sweet face. A lily truly, beautiful and pure.

"We had to fix her up that way, chum and I, for fear old Drymar would meet us," cried Earnest with a burst of boyish delight at the astonished and relieved faces of the family; "and it has been such fun to watch Miriam this evening. Father and mother kept in better."

"Mon Dieu! Do you call that little creature old enough to be Earnest's grandmother?" whispered Mademoiselle Widger to Mrs. Woodcock, leaning over her pew railing on the next Sabbath, as the Seacrests came into church.

Mrs. Woodcock looked, took off her glasses, wiped them, and looked again.

"Mercy on me! And I sat as near to her that day as I am to the minister now! How a body's eyes will deceive them!"

—There are miles in area in Boston in which a man cannot travel ten rods without being in the closest vicinity to places for the sale of liquor which the state police permit to sell and which pay tribute to them for the permission. It was to remove this most discreditable and demoralizing system of licensing that the state constabulary was abolished by the Legislature; and it is to preserve a body of men whose action is so objectionable that the Governor has interfered. We insist that neither His Excellency nor any one else shall claim to be consistent opponents of the license system while they sustain partial, irresponsible and venal licensing, such as is exhibited all about us under the present law.—Boston Post.

Kingston, Saturday Morning, June 27.

The jewel of consistency should be hung in the nose of Governor Moses of South Carolina. He has made himself a reputation as a jail deliverer in his own interest, and has added to it by his late pardon of the three County Commissioners who were sentenced respectively to three, nine and ten years in the penitentiary for corruption and thieving. Like his celebrated namesake we have reason to fear the Governor of South Carolina will never see the Promised Land. And unlike him we have no expectation that he of the Palmetto state will have angels for his pall-bearers at the time of his leaving a world which is all the worse for his having lived in it.

The conviction of the two New York Police Commissioners, Charlick and Gardiner, is a startling indication of the latest mood of the political world. It took months and even years of agitation to bring Tweed to the dock, although he was the biggest scoundrel in the country, even exceeding Shepherd; and it was not until he was shorn of his power and comparatively weak that he was held amenable to law. But Charlick and Gardiner have been tried in the days of their power, and for an offence that was considered rather clever than otherwise only a few years since. John Kelly, grim sachem of Tammany, smiled when the jury pronounced the pair guilty, possibly because the little informality of manipulating election boards usually aroused a smile at Tammany feasts.

A World correspondent writing from Maine says concerning the contrast between good old times in that state and the present in reference to the shipping interests: "Formerly, under Democratic rule, our ship-yards were busy, our docks were full, our laborers contented, our merchants prosperous. To-day we are sleeping under a lethargy of despair." We don't mean to question the truth of the statement and regret that it should have the slightest basis in fact, but what sort of process is "sleeping under a lethargy of despair?" If the Lethean waters have completely rolled over the rotting timbers of unframed Yankee ships and over the men interested in building and launching them, the unconsciousness logically consequent upon the fact should be a sufficient antidote to "despair." Yet we may be wrong; 'tis long since we studied the poetics of mechanics.

In a critical notice of the music had at Theodore Thomas' recent benefit, the phrase "tone-pictures" is made use of to designate a peculiar quality of instrumentation. It should be explained that the newspaper critic is not responsible for it inasmuch as it is printed on the score itself, and so is to be debited to the composer. But we protest against the titler as an essential nuisance of language. "Tone-pictures!" why not say pigment-waltzes as well? A picture is a picture and a tone is a tone; each addresses the mind in a different way, and there is no natural unity between them [as methods of the communication of thought. There is a super-refinement among the aspiring creme de la creme of society and art which leads its possessors to covet a new language. We hope the infection will not spread to the more sensible classes. Everybody has heard the phrase "word-painting," for example. Now, there is no such thing as word-painting; the phrase has a meaning but it is unhappily constructed for all that. Let us have simple names for great things—so shall we learn them better. "Tone-pictures," indeed! for blind men who see with their ears.

The President's appointment of Mr. Hale of Maine to the Postmaster Generalship, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Cresswell, proves as severe a riddle to the politicians as the latter's resignation itself. They all agree that Grant has no longer the ability to surprise anybody, for he has made known the fact that no common law of precedent binds him; but in trying to fathom the reasons for this last freak of his the quidnuncs are at fault. Mr. Hale is one of the most intimate friends of Speaker Blaine, and Speaker Blaine is presumed to be an early-bird candidate for the White House. Now, question the searchers of signs, what made Grant put the other self of his rival into a position which affords the largest opportunities of any in the Cabinet for the prosecution of a presidential campaign? Does it mean that Grant has given up the hope of a third term, if, indeed, he ever indulged one? and has he pronounced for Blaine as the administration favorite for the successorship? Or, again, does the President cling to the intention of going on the course again, and by placing Hale in the Cabinet expect to curry favor with Senator Chandler, Mr. Hale's father-in-law, whose help he regards as a thing to be desired? Here is a little nut to be cracked in warm weather.

Certain of Thursday's dailies publish a highly dramatic account of an accident to an express passenger train upon the Harlem Railroad. While running at the rate of forty miles an hour the train struck a cow which was trying to pick up a precarious livelihood between the rails. At the first impact the animal was thrown several feet up the side of a slope of earth, from which she again fell upon the track and under the rear car. The car, filled with assorted humanity, was at once dislodged from the rails and dragged for a considerable distance, demolishing telegraph-poles and tearing down line-fences until finally it collided with a big stone and stopped. We were glad to read that nobody was seriously hurt. It is wonderful how near people can come in such cases to death and cheat the watchful old monster after all. Yet the satisfaction of illustrating this fact can hardly be considered a fair offset to the carelessness of cattle-owners who allow their stock to run about loose in the vicinity of railroads. We are also not a little surprised that a cow of breeding and possessed with power to discriminate between different roads, should have expected to find grass in the very middle of one of the great Vanderbilt iron arteries. Now there are roads where—but why should we point out pasturages to predatory bovines? Wonder if the Harlem cow "depreciated" any.

When Governor Dix comes to talk about the Latin language our confidence in the horizontality of his cerebrum is consummate and unmodified, for the Governor is at home there. As a classicist he has no living equal among Governors. If by any mischance the fullness of the official Gentiles should ever fail him, he can fall back upon the lingo of the ancient Roman patrician and teach it to the army in times of peace, with a certainty of much high-toned compensation. Seeing that college students and coroners' juries are so in need of more Latin it is a wonder that the Governor has been unmolested by them so long. In his Union College oration, in which he discussed the matter of roots, conjugations, declensions and gerunds—the Governor says our fault as a people is "diffusiveness of style;" in less classical phrase, he says we "slop over." Now, the inference he would have us draw is that if we would only learn to speak Latin we should inevitably condense more. Governor Dix is right, and we are glad to have him quote for the benefit of careless and ambitious extemporizers, the saying of Plutarch concerning Demosthenes:

"Haud temere quisquam Demosthenem audieret extempore dicentem; sed quum in concione sæpe sederet et populus nominatim eum exciret ad dicendum, nisi esset meditatus ad id et paratus, non procederet."

A good practice, and one we hereby commend to all concerned. If they don't understand it let them write to the Governor.

The Tilton-Beecher Case.

The Tilton letter will be read by the civilized world with great sorrow, and no thanks are due the reverend gentlemen whose wretched jealousy of Mr. Beecher led them to goad Tilton into making his statement. For with all the poor opinion entertained of Tilton by many, it must be conceded by all who have followed the management of the case through all its maze of technicalities that Tilton has been grossly wronged in the treatment he has received at the hands of Plymouth Church and those who have assumed to speak for its pastor. Mr. Shearman, lawyer-like, has treated the case as a lawyer would in court, and has miserably failed in consequence. We hold Henry Ward Beecher innocent until he speaks, even though Theodore Tilton's words are positive. Character has force more than equal to men's averments, and if a life of twenty-five years of unblemished purity and conspicuous service for God and humanity must be put on the defensive at the faintest whisper, then it is useless for men and women to build up character at all. And even if Beecher has committed what Tilton hints we are charitable enough to hope it an isolated yielding to an overwhelming temptation rather than a discovered index of a hidden character glossed over with professions of piety. But even a character of life-long purity has no right to crush another that it may receive no stain, and that is what has been attempted with Mr. Tilton, who has been placed in a false position and denied again and again the right of a hearing, while at the same time goaded on to speaking. The case has been most bunglingly mismanaged throughout, but there seems no way out of it but for Mr. Tilton to accept Mr. Shearman's readiness to have Plymouth Church investigate any charges that Tilton may make. Let him now make those charges and let them be investigated, and we hope Tilton will be proved an infamous liar.

—The dog ordinance of New York caused too heavy a draft on the treasury, and has been amended so that only certain authorized parties are paid for catching the canines.

—Dr. Hammond, the renowned physician, recommends as a preventative of hydrophobia that the teeth of all dogs be filed blunt. Here is a chance for a new and paying industry.

—China is the elysium for old maids. When a woman lives a single life to an old age there, the Emperor causes her to be specially honored and pensioned. Now, Susan, go hence.

—Judge Poland seems to have a busy time ahead of him, in explaining to those obstinate Green Mountaineers his votes on backpay, Judge Durell and the newspaper punishment bill.

—Senator Carpenter has written a letter to the New York Times explaining his newspaper libel bill, and the Times thinks it wasn't near so bad after all and roars very mildly over it.

—As we surmised, the blame for the Syracuse disaster rests on the church authorities, who allowed the building to be weakened by removing supporting pillars and botchwork carpentry.

—It is a commendable fact that Collector Arthur and his Custom House squad let Congress act its own sweet will about the moeity law, not attempting in any way to influence them. Perhaps they've learned something to their advantage lately.

—What a silly thing is superstition! The handsome Nathan Mansion, where the mysterious murder took place, has been pulled down and a new one will be built on the site. All because no one would live in the old place on account of the tragedy.

—The New York World is trying mightily to prove by the failure of the West Point colored cadets and the record of the colored Congressmen that the race is an inferior one. Has it occurred to the World that years of cruel bondage have not been the best school for developing intellectual ability?

—Our Congress seems to be a pretty decent concern, after all. No less than thirteen members of the present British house of commons have been put out, neck and heels, for bribery, corruption, intimidation and such like irregularities. But then how many of our Congressmen ought to have been expelled?

—Here's a verse applicable to the British royal household just now:

Birds in their little nests agree,
And 'tis a shameful sight
When children of one familee
Fall out and quarrel and fight.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The peach-growers are predicting a short crop.

—Freights have fallen ten cents on the Erie Canal.

—A woman has just arrived in California who has made the full journey from the Missouri River on foot, camping at neight wherever she happened to be, and roughing it with as much nonchalance, apparently, as a child of the plains. She is after a recreant husband, who had fled to the Pacific coast, and the journey has evidently been good training for the discipline of the meeting.

—The Pennsylvania Railroad is completing arrangements for carrying the peach crop of the coming season. A lightning peach train will run from Delaware to Boston, reaching the markets of the latter eight hours after those in New York left by the same train. To do this the cars will be carried across the Hudson by floats, as they are now transported over the Delaware at Camden, and the train will be run at an average rate of forty miles an hour.

—Gold medals are to be given to each of the heroes of the Mill River calamity. Each medal is to have inscribed upon its face, "Mill River Reservoir Disaster, 1874," and upon the reverse a wreath, inside which is to be engraved the name of the recipient. They are two styles—one bearing on the face a horseback rider at full speed, and the other a man driving a horse and wagon at break-neck speed, with the torrent in the background. Cheney and Hillman are to have one of the former style, and Day and Graves of the latter.

CUBA.

The Financial Situation.

HAVANA, June 26.—An address has been presented to Captain General Concha signed by business men of all branches of trade. It represents that, "in view of the frightful condition of financial affairs, which threatens the ruin of the country and menaces the authority of your excellency, it is the duty of every good Spaniard to come to the aid of the government with such resources as he can command. Gold to-day is quoted at 2.92 and will undoubtedly soon reach 10.00 if speedy and supreme efforts are not made to check the rise. Rates of foreign exchange, like those of gold, are also going up indefinitely. This upward movement if continued will soon bring about general bankruptcy, and will make the cost of the necessaries of life so high that the people will be unable to endure it. The consequences of this deplorable state of things will be incalculable. It is the duty of all to try to prevent it on this account, and for the above reasons we ask for the imposition of a tax at five per cent. on the riches of the island, which are represented by landed proprietors in city and country, and by commercial and banking institutions and others, to be paid quarterly for two years, beginning with July 1st, 1874. It is hoped that at the end of this period the war will be concluded and there will be no further necessity for such extreme measures." The subscribers to the above document pledge themselves to pay their part of the tax and anxiously await a decree levying the same and making the necessary provision for enforcing its collection. A meeting is to be held to-night at the palace of the Captain General, who will preside. All the heads of different branches of trade are invited to be present and discuss the financial situation.

Article 14 of the laws of July 4th, 1870, providing for the gradual abolition of slavery, declares that the government is to indemnify the owners of slaves emancipated by the law, and for that purpose an annual tax is to be imposed on all slaves between the ages of eleven and sixty years of 25 cents each.—Captain General Concha to-day issued a decree increasing the tax to 75 cents per capita.

It is reported that the government intends to establish a penal colony on the Isle of Pines, under the charge of officers of the army, whither will be sent all traitors, vagrants and incorrigibles.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Reforms in Egypt.

LONDON, June 26.—In the House of Commons to-day Captain Bailtie Cochrane moved a resolution in favor of interference of the government for judicial reform in Egypt, because the English are deeply interested in the uninterrupted navigation of the Suez Canal. Captain Cochrane's motion was not agreed to.

Mr. Bourke, Under Foreign Secretary, stated that the chief obstacle to such reform was France, who hesitated to abandon the position she had acquired in Egypt. If she persisted in her refusal to conform with the views of the other powers the only course which remained for them would be to act without her.

Tory Opposition to the Public Worship Bill.

The opponents of the public worship regulation bill, which passed the House of Lords last night, declare that it is useless and dangerous; that it affects questions of doctrine unfavorably, attacks the ritualists unfairly and jeopardizes the union of church and state. The Marquis of Salisbury, Secretary for India, and other Tories vehemently opposed the measure, and it is understood will appeal to the House of Commons to reject it. The bill reorganizes the present cumbersome ecclesiastical courts so as to enable them to take speedy cognizance of new ceremonies.

Proposition to Extend MacMahon's Term of Office.

PARIS, June 26.—At the sitting of the Committee of Thirty to-day M. Tallon of the Right Centre proposed the extension of President MacMahon's term of office to ten years, and the appointment of a Vice President.

M. Dufaure approved the project, on which no vote was taken.

M. Batbie announced that the Committee would proceed to vote on M. Cassimir-Perrier's bill next Monday.

It has been decided not to refer M. de la Rochefoucauld's monarchical resolution to the Committee of Thirty, and it will probably be declared unconstitutional.

The Assembly to-day passed a bill granting 26,000,000 francs indemnity to the sufferers by the late war.

The motion was defeated by a majority of five votes.

ITALY.

The Pope Determined to Remain in Rome.

ROME, June 26.—The Pope to-day received a deputation from the Roman nobility. He said the demonstration of Sunday last was a spontaneous and magnificent act of the people; the counter demonstration of Wednesday was the impious and miserable work of the sons of darkness. The Pope added that he had received a letter urging him to quit Rome, because his person was not safe; but he declared he would remain here as long as God permitted.

A Youthful Would-be Murderess.

Last evening Sarah Jane Reeves, a colored girl ten years old, was committed to the county jail at Elizabeth, New Jersey, charged with attempting to poison the family of John R. Miller of Crawford. The girl was employed as a servant in the family of Mr. Miller, and yesterday morning placed enough creosote in the coffee and cream to kill twenty persons. When arrested she confessed the crime and said she made the attempt to kill the family because she had been badly treated by Mr. Miller. She expressed no sorrow for the act, but said she had tried hard to close her master's mouth for sure.

The Beecher-Tilton Scandal.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Mr. Beecher was present at the weekly prayer meeting of Plymouth Church this evening. The proceedings were of the usual devotional character and no reference whatever was made to the letter recently published by Mr. Tilton. After meeting Mr. Beecher, in conversation with a reporter, said he had at present no intention of saying anything in reply to the recent statements. He had a large pastorate under his charge and had no time for personal controversies. If, however, the examiners of Plymouth Church should decide that it would be well for him to speak out in regard to the recent charges, he would do so without hesitation.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Circular from Treasurer Spinner.

WASHINGTON, June, 26.—Treasurer Spinner has issued a circular respecting deposits of United States notes by national banks for the redemption of their circulating notes, as required by Sections 2 and 3 of the currency bill approved June 22d. Every national bank, national gold banks excepted, is requested to cause to be deposited in the Treasurer's office an amount of United States notes equal to five per centum of its circulation. In estimating the circulation upon which a percentage is required there must be included the notes of its own issue in possession of the bank, as well as those in actual circulation, and there should also be included any amounts that may have been returned to the Comptroller of Currency by the bank, and for which it is to receive new currency. The United States notes may be sent to the Treasurer under the contract of the Treasury Department with Adams' Express Company, and under the same regulations as are prescribed for the forwarding of notes and currency of the United States for redemption. Expenses of transportation will be paid by the department, which will hereafter be reimbursed for such expenses. If any bank prefer it may forward the required amount by drafts on New York, Boston or Philadelphia, drawn to the order of the Treasurer of the United States, and payable in United States notes. If so drawn and paid in such notes credit will be given to the bank when collected. If payment be not made in United States notes, the draft will be returned to the bank and the deposit of such notes required to be made by express. Acknowledgment will be made to each bank for its deposit when completed by remittance to it of a certificate in proper form.

Groundless Rumors Regarding Mr. Creswell.

Mr. Creswell is making arrangements to retire from office next week. Mr. Hale has not yet signified to the President his acceptance of the Postmaster Generalship. Mr. Creswell, in conversation with friends to-day, said his object in resigning was to resume his law practice; that the reports as to a prospective appointment to the Austrian mission were groundless, and that rumors of his going into the banking business are equally so, as he has no such intention at present.

Dissatisfied Officials.

Government officials generally are setting up a howl because Congress increased the pay of the two Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury and left them out in the cold. Each one of the grumblers maintains that his special duties are the most important of any under the government.

An Easy Victory for the Argonauta B. C.

NEW YORK, June 26.—A four-oared shell race took place this afternoon between the Buffalo Rowing Club and the Argonauta Boat Club of New Jersey, for the amateur championship of the United States. The cruise was from West Brighton, S. I., to the Newark Bay lighthouse, three miles, straight-away. The Buffalonians rowed in a paper shell, while the Argonautas rowed in a cedar shell. The former were the favorites. At 5:20 a good start was had, but the Buffalonians were somewhat slow, while their opponents settled to their work at once and gained half a length, which was increased to a length at the half-mile stake. At the Argonauta boat house the Jerseymen were two lengths ahead, which was maintained to the end. Time 16 m. 46 sec. The Buffalo crew attribute their failure to the rough water and strong wind. A large sum of money changed hands on the result.

An Experiment in Self-Government.

PARSONS, Kan., June 25.—Important changes have taken place in the Indian Territory. All the agents of the civilized Indians have been relieved, excepting J. B. Jones, agent of the Cherokees, and a central agency has been established at Fort Gibson. The Cherokees, Choctaws, Creeks, Seminoles and Chickasaws and other civilized Indians will all be under agent Jones. This is regarded as an experiment on a small scale to familiarize the Indians with self-government under the future territorial organization. A number of prominent Indians will take strong grounds in their coming annual elections in favor of sectionizing their county and territorial governments and citizenship in the United States. The Oaklahoma Star, published at Caddo, in the Choctaw nation, openly and ably advocates this doctrine.

The Sioux Not Anxious for a Fight.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 26.—From all the information so far obtained it does not look as if the Sioux in Dakotah are particularly anxious for a fight with the Seventh Cavalry, which they can have any day. —That frog supper put a stop to our reporter's writing up the spiritual seance for the present. The spirits have to take a back seat when frogs come near our reporters.

—At a meeting held on Thursday night it was finally resolved that we are to have a celebration on the Fourth. The orator of the day is Judge Osborn of Catskill. Steam Fire Engine Company No. 2 of Catskill has been invited to visit us and compete with our steamer, Minnehaha, for the honor of the two "cities." The invitation has been accepted, and the Catskill boys will be here. H. D. Laflin has been elected Marshal and Charles Davis reader of the Declaration of Independence. We shall have a good time. All the people of Kingston are invited, providing they pay for their own liquor, firecrackers and gingerbread.

—A man was seen on the roof of Mr. Higgins' house last Thursday night about 12 o'clock by their servant girl. She ran to Mrs. Higgins' room, woke her up, and told her what she had seen. Mrs. Higgins ran to the front window and gave the alarm. A number of gentlemen passing by at the time ran around to the rear of the house, but Mrs. H. says he jumped off the roof and over Mr. Post's fence before they could get there. No trace of him could be found. No doubt he knew Mr. H. was away from home and thought it a good opportunity to make a haul.

—We are told that they had quite an interesting time in Quarryville on Tuesday evening of this week. About 7 o'clock a lady made her appearance in the street who, becoming quite noisy and rousing the whole neighborhood from their slumbers, 'Squire Hommell cut her career short by putting her in the lockup, setting two volunteer guards, Teetsell and Fitzpatrick, but they falling asleep about 4 A. M. Cook, the blacksmith, an intimate friend of the lady, came along and assisted her to escape.

—The Honesdale Herald would rather have the money appropriated for buying Fourth of July fireworks used for purchasing a public fountain.

—Poughkeepsie has a case of baby found dead, and the mother, Phœbe Reed, and her sister Emma have been arrested charged with its murder.

—Port Jervis' assessed valuation this year is $1,025,250, against $878,522 last year and the corporation and road tax 1.30 against 1.48 last year.

—The Poughkeepsie city railroad carried 2,719 passengers on Tuesday, 2,818 on Wednesday and 2,233 on Thursday, the largest business it has ever done.

—An umbrella was found on fire in a farmer's wagon, near Poughkeepsie, the other day. This brings up an important question—"Will umbrellas prematurely combust?"

—A Poughkeepsie car driver gets forty persons in his car, most of them Vassar students at that. Vassar diet must be very light or those females don't patronize crinoline.

—The Poughkeepsie News says that rumors were rife in Poughkeepsie that the Dutchess & Columbia Railroad intend turning the switches against the Poughkeepsie & Eastern road above Stissing. No hostile steps have, however, thus far been taken.

The Daily Freeman

Kingston, Saturday Morning, June 27.

The jewel of consistency should be hung in the nose of Governor Moses of South Carolina. He has made himself a reputation as a jail deliverer in his own interest, and has added to it by his late pardon of the three County Commissioners who were sentenced respectively to three, nine and ten years in the penitentiary for corruption and thieving. Like his celebrated namesake we have reason to fear the Governor of South Carolina will never see the Promised Land. And unlike him we have no expectation that he of the Palmetto state will have angels for his pall-bearers at the time of his leaving a world which is all the worse for his having lived in it.

The conviction of the two New York Police Commissioners, Charlick and Gardiner, is a startling indication of the latest mood of the political world. It took months and even years of agitation to bring Tweed to the dock, although he was the biggest scoundrel in the country, even exceeding Shepherd; and it was not until he was shorn of his power and comparatively weak that he was held amenable to law. But Charlick and Gardiner have been tried in the days of their power, and for an offence that was considered rather clever than otherwise only a few years since. John Kelly, grim sachem of Tammany, smiled when the jury pronounced the pair guilty, possibly because the little informality of manipulating election boards usually aroused a smile at Tammany feasts.

A World correspondent writing from Maine says concerning the contrast between good old times in that state and the present in reference to the shipping interests: "Formerly, under Democratic rule, our ship-yards were busy, our docks were full, our laborers contented, our merchants prosperous. To-day we are sleeping under a lethargy of despair." We don't mean to question the truth of the statement and regret that it should have the slightest basis in fact, but what sort of process is "sleeping under a lethargy of despair?" If the Lethean waters have completely rolled over the rotting timbers of unframed Yankee ships and over the men interested in building and launching them, the unconsciousness logically consequent upon the fact should be a sufficient antidote to "despair." Yet we may be wrong; 'tis long since we studied the poetics of mechanics.

In a critical notice of the music had at Theodore Thomas' recent benefit, the phrase "tone-pictures" is made use of to designate a peculiar quality of instrumentation. It should be explained that the newspaper critic is not responsible for it inasmuch as it is printed on the score itself, and so is to be debited to the composer. But we protest against the titler as an essential nuisance of language. "Tone-pictures!" why not say pigment-waltzes as well? A picture is a picture and a tone is a tone; each addresses the mind in a different way, and there is no natural unity between them as methods of the communication of thought. There is a super-refinement among the aspiring creme de la creme of society and art which leads its possessors to covet a new language. We hope the infection will not spread to the more sensible classes. Everybody has heard the phrase "word-painting," for example. Now, there is no such thing as word-painting; the phrase has a meaning but it is unhappily constructed for all that. Let us have simple names for great things—so shall we learn them better. "Tone-pictures," indeed! for blind men who see with their ears.

The President's appointment of Mr. Hale of Maine to the Postmaster Generalship, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Cresswell, proves as severe a riddle to the politicians as the latter's resignation itself. They all agree that Grant has no longer the ability to surprise anybody, for he has made known the fact that no common law of precedent binds him; but in trying to fathom the reasons for this last freak of his the quidnuncs are at fault. Mr. Hale is one of the most intimate friends of Speaker Blaine, and Speaker Blaine is presumed to be an early-bird candidate for the White House. Now, question the searchers of signs, what made Grant put the other self of his rival into a position which affords the largest opportunities of any in the Cabinet for the prosecution of a presidential campaign? Does it mean that Grant has given up the hope of a third term, if, indeed, he ever indulged one? and has he pronounced for Blaine as the administration favorite for the successorship? Or, again, does the President cling to the intention of going on the course again, and by placing Hale in the Cabinet expect to curry favor with Senator Chandler, Mr. Hale's father-in-law, whose help he regards as a thing to be desired? Here is a little nut to be cracked in warm weather.

Certain of Thursday's dailies publish a highly dramatic account of an accident to an express passenger train upon the Harlem Railroad. While running at the rate of forty miles an hour the train struck a cow which was trying to pick up a precarious livelihood between the rails. At the first impact the animal was thrown several feet up the side of a slope of earth, from which she again fell upon the track and under the rear car. The car, filled with assorted humanity, was at once dislodged from the rails and dragged for a considerable distance, demolishing telegraph-poles and tearing down line-fences until finally it collided with a big stone and stopped. We were glad to read that nobody was seriously hurt. It is wonderful how near people can come in such cases to death and cheat the watchful old monster after all. Yet the satisfaction of illustrating this fact can hardly be considered a fair offset to the carelessness of cattle-owners who allow their stock to run about loose in the vicinity of railroads. We are also not a little surprised that a cow of breeding and possessed with power to discriminate between different roads, should have expected to find grass in the very middle of one of the great Vanderbilt iron arteries. Now there are roads where—but why should we point out pasturages to predatory bovines? Wonder if the Harlem cow "depreciated" any.

When Governor Dix comes to talk about the Latin language our confidence in the horizontality of his cerebrum is consummate and unmodified, for the Governor is at home there. As a classicist he has no living equal among Governors. If by any mischance the fullness of the official Gentiles should ever fail him, he can fall back upon the lingo of the ancient Roman patrician and teach it to the army in times of peace, with a certainty of much high-toned compensation. Seeing that college students and coroners' juries are so in need of more Latin it is a wonder that the Governor has been unmolested by them so long. In his Union College oration, in which he discussed the matter of roots, conjugations, declensions and gerunds—the Governor says our fault as a people is "diffusiveness of style;" in less classical phrase, he says we "slop over." Now, the inference he would have us draw is that if we would only learn to speak Latin we should inevitably condense more. Governor Dix is right, and we are glad to have him quote for the benefit of careless and ambitious extemporizers, the saying of Plutarch concerning Demosthenes:

"Haud temere quisquam Demosthenem audieret extempore dicentem; sed quum in concione sæpe sederet et populus nominatim eum exciret ad dicendum, nisi esset meditatus ad id et paratus, non procederet."

A good practice, and one we hereby commend to all concerned. If they don't understand it let them write to the Governor.

The Tilton-Beecher Case.

The Tilton letter will be read by the civilized world with great sorrow, and no thanks are due the reverend gentlemen whose wretched jealousy of Mr. Beecher led them to goad Tilton into making his statement. For with all the poor opinion entertained of Tilton by many, it must be conceded by all who have followed the management of the case through all its maze of technicalities that Tilton has been grossly wronged in the treatment he has received at the hands of Plymouth Church and those who have assumed to speak for its pastor. Mr. Shearman, lawyer-like, has treated the case as a lawyer would in court, and has miserably failed in consequence. We hold Henry Ward Beecher innocent until he speaks, even though Theodore Tilton's words are positive. Character has force more than equal to men's averments, and if a life of twenty-five years of unblemished purity and conspicuous service for God and humanity must be put on the defensive at the faintest whisper, then it is useless for men and women to build up character at all. And even if Beecher has committed what Tilton hints we are charitable enough to hope it an isolated yielding to an overwhelming temptation rather than a discovered index of a hidden character glossed over with professions of piety. But even a character of life-long purity has no right to crush another that it may receive no stain, and that is what has been attempted with Mr. Tilton, who has been placed in a false position and denied again and again the right of a hearing, while at the same time goaded on to speaking. The case has been most bunglingly mismanaged throughout, but there seems no way out of it but for Mr. Tilton to accept Mr. Shearman's readiness to have Plymouth Church investigate any charges that Tilton may make. Let him now make those charges and let them be investigated, and we hope Tilton will be proved an infamous liar.

CURRENT TOPICS.

—The weather just now is about as uncertain as French politics.

—The relations between Turkey and Persia are not friendly. Oh, Shah!

—It is funny work watching the administration journals trying to defend the President's latest blunders.

—Did Bass decline that Assistant Secretaryship because there was already a Fish in the Cabinet?

—Henry Ward Beecher was sixty years old on Wednesday. That card of Tilton's wasn't a very pleasant birthday gift.

—Queen Victoria won't go to Russia. She's had trouble enough since Russia came to her to set her "agin" the whole race.

—Things aren't as they used to be—vide Harper's Weekly and other Republican journals on the adjournment of Congress.

—The Pope thinks this is a pretty good country, and he's right there. But we wonder what be thinks of some of our statesmen?

—The Springfield Republican thinks some of the New England Senators and Representatives will hear of several of their votes later on.

—The Albany Journal evidently don't like the prohibitionists' nomination. It speaks of "the mummy they have presented for Governor."

—Get your affairs in shape. The Adventists set down the final destruction of the world for January 1st, 1901—and they are sure this time, they say.

—Plimsoll received a defeat on his bill for the betterment of the condition of English seamen. He came near enough—173 to 170—however, to try it again.

—The dog ordinance of New York caused too heavy a draft on the treasury, and has been amended so that only certain authorized parties are paid for catching the canines.

—Dr. Hammond, the renowned physician, recommends as a preventative of hydrophobia that the teeth of all dogs be filed blunt. Here is a chance for a new and paying industry.

—China is the elysium for old maids. When a woman lives a single life to an old age there, the Emperor causes her to be specially honored and pensioned. Now, Susan, go hence.

—Judge Poland seems to have a busy time ahead of him, in explaining to those obstinate Green Mountaineers his votes on backpay, Judge Durell and the newspaper punishment bill.

—Senator Carpenter has written a letter to the New York Times explaining his newspaper libel bill, and the Times thinks it wasn't near so bad after all and roars very mildly over it.

—As we surmised, the blame for the Syracuse disaster rests on the church authorities, who allowed the building to be weakened by removing supporting pillars and botchwork carpentry.

—It is a commendable fact that Collector Arthur and his Custom House squad let Congress act its own sweet will about the moeity law, not attempting in any way to influence them. Perhaps they've learned something to their advantage lately.

—What a silly thing is superstition! The handsome Nathan Mansion, where the mysterious murder took place, has been pulled down and a new one will be built on the site. All because no one would live in the old place on account of the tragedy.

—The New York World is trying mightily to prove by the failure of the West Point colored cadets and the record of the colored Congressmen that the race is an inferior one. Has it occurred to the World that years of cruel bondage have not been the best school for developing intellectual ability?

—Our Congress seems to be a pretty decent concern, after all. No less than thirteen members of the present British house of commons have been put out, neck and heels, for bribery, corruption, intimidation and such like irregularities. But then how many of our Congressmen ought to have been expelled?

—Here's a verse applicable to the British royal household just now:

Birds in their little nests agree,
And 'tis a shameful sight
When children of one familee
Fall out and quarrel and fight.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The peach-growers are predicting a short crop.

—Freights have fallen ten cents on the Erie Canal.

—A woman has just arrived in California who has made the full journey from the Missouri River on foot, camping at neight wherever she happened to be, and roughing it with as much nonchalance, apparently, as a child of the plains. She is after a recreant husband, who had fled to the Pacific coast, and the journey has evidently been good training for the discipline of the meeting.

—The Pennsylvania Railroad is completing arrangements for carrying the peach crop of the coming season. A lightning peach train will run from Delaware to Boston, reaching the markets of the latter eight hours after those in New York left by the same train. To do this the cars will be carried across the Hudson by floats, as they are now transported over the Delaware at Camden, and the train will be run at an average rate of forty miles an hour.

—Gold medals are to be given to each of the heroes of the Mill River calamity. Each medal is to have inscribed upon its face, "Mill River Reservoir Disaster, 1874," and upon the reverse a wreath, inside which is to be engraved the name of the recipient. They are two styles—one bearing on the face a horseback rider at full speed, and the other a man driving a horse and wagon at break-neck speed, with the torrent in the background. Cheney and Hillman are to have one of the former style, and Day and Graves of the latter.

The Financial Situation.

HAVANA, June 26.—An address has been presented to Captain General Concha signed by business men of all branches of trade. It represents that, "in view of the frightful condition of financial affairs, which threatens the ruin of the country and menaces the authority of your excellency, it is the duty of every good Spaniard to come to the aid of the government with such resources as he can command Gold to-day is quoted at 2.92 and will undoubtedly soon reach 10.00 if speedy and supreme efforts are not made to check the rise. Rates of foreign exchange, like those of gold, are also going up indefinitely. This upward movement if continued will soon bring about general bankruptcy, and will make the cost of the necessaries of life so high that the people will be unable to endure it. The consequences of this deplorable state of things will be incalculable. It is the duty of all to try to prevent it on this account, and for the above reasons we ask for the imposition of a tax at five per cent. on the riches of the island, which are represented by landed proprietors in city and country, and by commercial and banking institutions and others, to be paid quarterly for two years, beginning with July 1st, 1874. It is hoped that at the end of this period the war will be concluded and there will be no further necessity for such extreme measures." The subscribers to the above document pledge themselves to pay their part of the tax and anxiously await a decree levying the same and making the necessary provision for enforcing its collection. A meeting is to be held to-night at the palace of the Captain General, who will preside. All the heads of different branches of trade are invited to be present and discuss the financial situation.

Article 14 of the laws of July 4th, 1870, providing for the gradual abolition of slavery, declares that the government is to indemnify the owners of slaves emancipated by the law, and for that purpose an annual tax is to be imposed on all slaves between the ages of eleven and sixty years of 25 cents each.—Captain General Concha to-day issued a decree increasing the tax to 75 cents per capita.

It is reported that the government intends to establish a penal colony on the Isle of Pines, under the charge of officers of the army, whither will be sent all traitors, vagrants and incorrigibles.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Reforms in Egypt.

LONDON, June 26.—In the House of Commons to-day Captain Bailtie Cochrane moved a resolution in favor of interference of the government for judicial reform in Egypt, because the English are deeply interested in the uninterrupted navigation of the Suez Canal. Captain Cochrane's motion was not agreed to.

Mr. Bourke, Under Foreign Secretary, stated that the chief obstacle to such reform was France, who hesitated to abandon the position she had acquired in Egypt. If she persisted in her refusal to conform with the views of the other powers the only course which remained for them would be to act without her.

Tory Opposition to the Public Worship Bill.

The opponents of the public worship regulation bill, which passed the House of Lords last night, declare that it is useless and dangerous; that it affects questions of doctrine unfavorably, attacks the ritualists unfairly and jeopardizes the union of church and state. The Marquis of Salisbury, Secretary for India, and other Tories vehemently opposed the measure, and it is understood will appeal to the House of Commons to reject it. The bill reorganizes the present cumbersome ecclesiastical courts so as to enable them to take speedy cognizance of new ceremonies.

FRANCE.

Proposition to Extend MacMahon's Term of Office.

PARIS, June 26.—At the sitting of the Committee of Thirty to-day M. Tallon of the Right Centre proposed the extension of President MacMahon's term of office to ten years, and the appointment of a Vice President.

M. Dufaure approved the project, on which no vote was taken.

M. Batbie announced that the Committee would proceed to vote on M. Cassimir-Perrier's bill next Monday.

It has been decided not to refer M. de la Rochefoucauld's monarchical resolution to the Committee of Thirty, and it will probably be declared unconstitutional.

The Assembly to-day passed a bill granting 26,000,000 francs indemnity to the sufferers by the late war.

Mr. Courbet, the artist, has been condemned to pay the cost of the reconstruction of the Vendome column.

Domiciliary visits have been made by the police to the offices of the imperialist journals and to the residences of prominent Bonapartists and important documents have been seized.

The Budget Committee have rejected the bill submitted by M. Magne, Minister of Finance, providing for an increase of direct taxation, and have declared in favor of reducing the payments to the Bank of France.

An Address to the Roman Catholics.

BERLIN, June 26.—The Bishops in session at Fulda will issue a joint pastoral to the Roman Catholics of Germany.

Defeat of the Ultramontanists.

MUNICH, June 26.—In the Bavarian Chamber of Representatives to-day the Ultramontane party attempted to carry an expression of censure against the Minister of Public Worship by moving the rejection of his estimates, alleging that he was the author of the conflict between church and state in Bavaria. The motion was defeated by a majority of five votes.

ITALY.

The Pope Determined to Remain in Rome.

ROME, June 26.—The Pope to-day received a deputation from the Roman nobility. He said the demonstration of Sunday last was a spontaneous and magnificent act of the people; the counter demonstration of Wednesday was the impious and miserable work of the sons of darkness. The Pope added that he had received a letter urging him to quit Rome, because his person was not safe; but he declared he would remain here as long as God permitted.

A Youthful Would-be Murderess.

Last evening Sarah Jane Reeves, a colored girl ten years old, was committed to the county jail at Elizabeth, New Jersey, charged with attempting to poison the family of John R. Miller of Crawford. The girl was employed as a servant in the family of Mr. Miller, and yesterday morning placed enough creosote in the coffee and cream to kill twenty persons. When arrested she confessed the crime and said she made the attempt to kill the family because she had been badly treated by Mr. Miller. She expressed no sorrow for the act, but said she had tried hard to close her master's mouth for sure.

The Beecher-Tilton Scandal.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Mr. Beecher was present at the weekly prayer meeting of Plymouth Church this evening. The proceedings were of the usual devotional character and no reference whatever was made to the letter recently published by Mr. Tilton. After meeting Mr. Beecher, in conversation with a reporter, said he had at present no intention of saying anything in reply to the recent statements. He had a large pastorate under his charge and had no time for personal controversies. If, however, the examiners of Plymouth Church should decide that it would be well for him to speak out in regard to the recent charges, he would do so without hesitation.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Circular from Treasurer Spinner.

WASHINGTON, June, 26.—Treasurer Spinner has issued a circular respecting deposits of United States notes by national banks for the redemption of their circulating notes, as required by Sections 2 and 3 of the currency bill approved June 22d. Every national bank, national gold banks excepted, is requested to cause to be deposited in the Treasurer's office an amount of United States notes equal to five per centum of its circulation. In estimating the circulation upon which a percentage is required there must be included the notes of its own issue in possession of the bank, as well as those in actual circulation, and there should also be included any amounts that may have been returned to the Comptroller of Currency by the bank, and for which it is to receive new currency. The United States notes may be sent to the Treasurer under the contract of the Treasury Department with Adams' Express Company, and under the same regulations as are prescribed for the forwarding of notes and currency of the United States for redemption. Expenses of transportation will be paid by the department, which will hereafter be reimbursed for such expenses. If any bank prefer it may forward the required amount by drafts on New York, Boston or Philadelphia, drawn to the order of the Treasurer of the United States, and payable in United States notes. If so drawn and paid in such notes credit will be given to the bank when collected. If payment be not made in United States notes, the draft will be returned to the bank and the deposit of such notes required to be made by express. Acknowledgment will be made to each bank for its deposit when completed by remittance to it of a certificate in proper form.

Groundless Rumors Regarding Mr. Creswell.

Mr. Creswell is making arrangements to retire from office next week. Mr. Hale has not yet signified to the President his acceptance of the Postmaster Generalship. Mr. Creswell, in conversation with friends to-day, said his object in resigning was to resume his law practice; that the reports as to a prospective appointment to the Austrian mission were groundless, and that rumors of his going into the banking business are equally so, as he has no such intention at present.

Cattell and Blow Decline.

It is reported to-night that Messrs. Cattell and Blow have declined their appointments to be Commissioners of this District.

An Unsatisfactory Appointment.

The appointment of Major Benit as Chief of Ordnance has created dissatisfaction in army circles. By this appointment he is promoted from Major to Brigadier General, over the heads of Lieutenant Colonels and Colonels, some of whom have been in the service over forty years, and are ready for the retired list.

Dissatisfied Officials.

Government officials generally are setting up a howl because Congress increased the pay of the two Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury and left them out in the cold. Each one of the grumblers maintains that his special duties are the most important of any under the government.

ACCIDENT AT A BEE.

One Man Killed and Eleven Others Wounded.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 26.—At Baden, Beaver county, at a barn-raising about twenty men were at work on a scaffold, which fell about thirty feet. One man named Silas McPherson was killed and eleven others were seriously injured.

SPORTING.

An Easy Victory for the Argonauta B. C.

NEW YORK, June 26.—A four-oared shell race took place this afternoon between the Buffalo Rowing Club and the Argonauta Boat Club of New Jersey, for the amateur championship of the United States. The cruise was from West Brighton, S. I., to the Newark Bay lighthouse, three miles, straight-away. The Buffalonians rowed in a paper shell, while the Argonautas rowed in a cedar shell. The former were the favorites. At 5:20 a good start was had, but the Buffalonians were somewhat slow, while their opponents settled to their work at once and gained half a length, which was increased to a length at the half-mile stake. At the Argonauta boat house the Jerseymen were two lengths ahead, which was maintained to the end. Time 16 m. 46 sec. The Buffalo crew attribute their failure to the rough water and strong wind. A large sum of money changed hands on the result.

Base-Ball.

BOSTON, June 26.—In a game of base-ball Friday between the Bostons and Chicagos the latter were defeated by a score of 8 to 7.

A Victory for American Girl.

BOSTON, June 26.—Beacon Park Races—Purse of $2,000, free for all horses, mile heats, best 3 in 5, in harness:

Time 2:25, 2:22, 2:25: 2:26, 2;25.

THE INDIANS.

An Experiment in Self-Government.

PARSONS, Kan., June 25.—Important changes have taken place in the Indian Territory. All the agents of the civilized Indians have been relieved, excepting J. B. Jones, agent of the Cherokees, and a central agency has been established at Fort Gibson. The Cherokees, Choctaws, Creeks, Seminoles and Chickasaws and other civilized Indians will all be under agent Jones. This is regarded as an experiment on a small scale to familiarize the Indians with self-government under the future territorial organization. A number of prominent Indians will take strong grounds in their coming annual elections in favor of sectionizing their county and territorial governments and citizenship in the United States. The Oaklahoma Star, published at Caddo, in the Choctaw nation, openly and ably advocates this doctrine.

The Sioux Not Anxious for a Fight.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 26.—From all the information so far obtained it does not look as if the Sioux in Dakotah are particularly anxious for a fight with the Seventh Cavalry, which they can have any day. Gen. Custer's expedition to the Black Hills would have started last Sunday if there had been any military necessity therefor. It departure is now postponed until the 30th inst., or on the 1st prox.

ARREST OF A FORGER.

He Suicides by Shooting.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—J. B. Underwood, formerly Mayor of Waverly, Ohio, who was indicted last fall in the United States District Court in this city for forging endorsements on two county warrants aggregating $800 and drawing the money on the same about three years ago, was apprehended last evening near Oxford, Ohio. The officers gave him permission to go into an adjoining room to change his clothing, and while in the room he shot himself, dying this morning.

LOUISIANA.

Republicans Going Back on the Negroes.

FRANKLIN, La., June 26.—The White League is sweeping the parish of St. Mary. Two prominent Republicans, the backbone of that party in this parish, joined to-day and others are expected to follow. The line is so closely drawn that they must come over or take their chances with the negroes.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Veto of the License Law.

BOSTON, June 26.—The license law recently passed by the Massachusetts Legislature was to-day vetoed by Governor Talbot.

AN EDITORIAL SHOOTING MATCH.

Mighty Poor Marksmanship.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 26.—A shooting affray occurred at Helena, Ark., to-day between W. R. Burke, editor of the World and C. A. Otey, editor of the Independent. Some half dozen shots were fired, but nobody was hurt. The difficulty grew out of personal articles in their respective papers.

NITRO-GLYCERINE EXPLOSION.

A Man, Horse and Wagon Blown to Pieces.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., June 26.—John E. Osborne was blown to atoms to-day near Parker City by the explosion of a hundred pounds of nitro-glycerine, which he was transporting in a wagon. The horse and wagon were annihilated.

THE WEATHER.

To-Day's Probabilities.

For New England, the Middle States and the lower lake region partly cloudy weather and local rains will prevail, with a slight fall of temperature, north to east winds and stationary to rising barometer.

SAUGERTIES.

—"Will," how about that frog you shot up at the Saw Creek that hadn't any hind legs?

—Blind Tom, the musical wonder, is to give an entertainment in Maxwell's Hall on the evening of July 3d.

—We are informed that there are living in School District No. 23, Quarryville, twenty-four widows and five widowers. Some of them are just nob. This is something that old bachelors ought too look after.

—A long, lank specimen of a Hoosier, who drives a stone team through our place, is bound to be ahead on the high hat question. He has had his hat painted full of different colored circles with the significant appellation of "Zeke of Fish Creek" on one of them.

—That frog supper put a stop to our reporter's writing up the spiritual seance for the present. The spirits have to take a back seat when frogs come near our reporters.

—At a meeting held on Thursday night it was finally resolved that we are to have a celebration on the Fourth. The orator of the day is Judge Osborn of Catskill. Steam Fire Engine Company No. 2 of Catskill has been invited to visit us and compete with our steamer, Minnehaha, for the honor of the two "cities." The invitation has been accepted, and the Catskill boys will be here. H. D. Laflin has been elected Marshal and Charles Davis reader of the Declaration of Independence. We shall have a good time. All the people of Kingston are invited, providing they pay for their own liquor, firecrackers and gingerbread.

—A man was seen on the roof of Mr. Higgins' house last Thursday night about 12 o'clock by their servant girl. She ran to Mrs. Higgins' room, woke her up, and told her what she had seen. Mrs. Higgins ran to the front window and gave the alarm. A number of gentlemen passing by at the time ran around to the rear of the house, but Mrs. H. says he jumped off the roof and over Mr. Post's fence before they could get there. No trace of him could be found. No doubt he knew Mr. H. was away from home and thought it a good opportunity to make a haul.

—We are told that they had quite an interesting time in Quarryville on Tuesday evening of this week. About 7 o'clock a lady made her appearance in the street who, becoming quite noisy and rousing the whole neighborhood from their slumbers, 'Squire Hommell cut her career short by putting her in the lockup, setting two volunteer guards, Teetsell and Fitzpatrick, but they falling asleep about 4 A. M. Cook, the blacksmith, an intimate friend of the lady, came along and assisted her to escape.

VICINITY.

—The late hail storm completely ruined the Schoharie hop crop.

—Walden has a Trustee who don't reside in the village.

—Catskill has invested $1,600 in two new hose carriages.

—Margaretville is base-balling quite extensively.

—The Delaware county towns are going to Fourth of July at a great rate.

—Burglars are operating very extensively about Hawley, Honesdale and vicinity.

—The Middletown barbers want the village Trustees to shut up their shops on Sundays.

—The Homœopathic Insane Asylum at Middletown has twenty-eight patients.

—Port Jervis is imbibing civilization. Flag sidewalks are being laid.

—Congressman St. John is pronounced politically dead by some of the Republicans of his District.

—The Honesdale Postmaster has just lost by death a parrot he has owned for twenty-five years.

—A. V. N. Powelson of Middletown has been appointed receiver of the Midland Stone Company.

—The Catskill Board of Health write competitive essays on the horrid smells of that burgh.

—The old well at Washington's Headquarters has been closed up. Not much sense in that.

—Howell & McCutcheon will commence the rebuilding of Condit's mill at Shawangunk this week.

—A fox entered a poultry yard in Margaretville and stole a chicken while five persons were looking at the fowls.

—A Honesdale Constable was burglarized to the amount of $180. The thieves evidently had no fear of the law.

—The Honesdale Herald says people call that place well laid out, and thinks it certainly is dead enough just now to be so.

—Newburgh Lodge of Good Templars will go on a moonlight excursion to Iona Island by the steamer Martin on Tuesday.

—Some parties unknown have robbed Snyder's Lake of the fish Seth Green had sent there for stocking purposes.

—Newburgh has had a visit from an organ-grinder worth $30,000. Poughkeepsie ought to get him to take stock in that bridge.

—The Honesdale Herald would rather have the money appropriated for buying Fourth of July fireworks used for purchasing a public fountain.

—Poughkeepsie has a case of baby found dead, and the mother, Phœbe Reed, and her sister Emma have been arrested charged with its murder.

—Port Jervis' assessed valuation this year is $1,025,250, against $878,522 last year and the corporation and road tax 1.30 against 1.48 last year.

—The village of Middletown is about to commence proceedings to compel the Midland officials to repair the streets through which the road passes.

—A tea swindler, who palmed off packages containing one pound of tea and four pounds of wadded paper, etc., has been operating around Honesdale.

—A Pike Pond minister who preached at Jeffersonville was much horrified to find they sold ice-cream late on Saturday night, and warned the members against the temptation.

—The Poughkeepsie city railroad carried 2,719 passengers on Tuesday, 2,818 on Wednesday and 2,233 on Thursday, the largest business it has ever done.

—An umbrella was found on fire in a farmer's wagon, near Poughkeepsie, the other day. This brings up an important question—"Will umbrellas prematurely combust?"

—A Poughkeepsie car driver gets forty persons in his car, most of them Vassar students at that. Vassar diet must be very light or those females don't patronize crinoline.

—The Poughkeepsie News says that rumors were rife in Poughkeepsie that the Dutchess & Columbia Railroad intend turning the switches against the Poughkeepsie & Eastern road above Stissing. No hostile steps have, however, thus far been taken.

The Daily Freeman

Kingston, Saturday Morning, June 27.

The jewel of consistency should be hung in the nose of Governor Moses of South Carolina. He has made himself a reputation as a jail deliverer in his own interest, and has added to it by his late pardon of the three County Commissioners who were sentenced respectively to three, nine and ten years in the penitentiary for corruption and thieving. Like his celebrated namesake we have reason to fear the Governor of South Carolina will never see the Promised Land. And unlike him we have no expectation that he of the Palmetto state will have angels for his pall-bearers at the time of his leaving a world which is all the worse for his having lived in it.

The conviction of the two New York Police Commissioners, Charlick and Gardiner, is a startling indication of the latest mood of the political world. It took months and even years of agitation to bring Tweed to the dock, although he was the biggest scoundrel in the country, even exceeding Shepherd; and it was not until he was shorn of his power and comparatively weak that he was held amenable to law. But Charlick and Gardiner have been tried in the days of their power, and for an offence that was considered rather clever than otherwise only a few years since. John Kelly, grim sachem of Tammany, smiled when the jury pronounced the pair guilty, possibly because the little informality of manipulating election boards usually aroused a smile at Tammany feasts.

A World correspondent writing from Maine says concerning the contrast between good old times in that state and the present in reference to the shipping interests: "Formerly, under Democratic rule, our ship-yards were busy, our docks were full, our laborers contented, our merchants prosperous. To-day we are sleeping under a lethargy of despair." We don't mean to question the truth of the statement and regret that it should have the slightest basis in fact, but what sort of process is "sleeping under a lethargy of despair?" If the Lethean waters have completely rolled over the rotting timbers of unframed Yankee ships and over the men interested in building and launching them, the unconsciousness logically consequent upon the fact should be a sufficient antidote to "despair." Yet we may be wrong; 'tis long since we studied the poetics of mechanics.

In a critical notice of the music had at Theodore Thomas' recent benefit, the phrase "tone-pictures" is made use of to designate a peculiar quality of instrumentation. It should be explained that the newspaper critic is not responsible for it inasmuch as it is printed on the score itself, and so is to be debited to the composer. But we protest against the titler as an essential nuisance of language. "Tone-pictures!" why not say pigment-waltzes as well? A picture is a picture and a tone is a tone; each addresses the mind in a different way, and there is no natural unity between them as methods of the communication of thought. There is a super-refinement among the aspiring creme de la creme of society and art which leads its possessors to covet a new language. We hope the infection will not spread to the more sensible classes. Everybody has heard the phrase "word-painting," for example. Now, there is no such thing as word-painting; the phrase has a meaning but it is unhappily constructed for all that. Let us have simple names for great things—so shall we learn them better. "Tone-pictures," indeed! for blind men who see with their ears.

The President's appointment of Mr. Hale of Maine to the Postmaster Generalship, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Cresswell, proves as severe a riddle to the politicians as the latter's resignation itself. They all agree that Grant has no longer the ability to surprise anybody, for he has made known the fact that no common law of precedent binds him; but in trying to fathom the reasons for this last freak of his the quidnuncs are at fault. Mr. Hale is one of the most intimate friends of Speaker Blaine, and Speaker Blaine is presumed to be an early-bird candidate for the White House. Now, question the searchers of signs, what made Grant put the other self of his rival into a position which affords the largest opportunities of any in the Cabinet for the prosecution of a presidential campaign? Does it mean that Grant has given up the hope of a third term, if, indeed, he ever indulged one? and has he pronounced for Blaine as the administration favorite for the successorship? Or, again, does the President cling to the intention of going on the course again, and by placing Hale in the Cabinet expect to curry favor with Senator Chandler, Mr. Hale's father-in-law, whose help he regards as a thing to be desired? Here is a little nut to be cracked in warm weather.

Certain of Thursday's dailies publish a highly dramatic account of an accident to an express passenger train upon the Harlem Railroad. While running at the rate of forty miles an hour the train struck a cow which was trying to pick up a precarious livelihood between the rails. At the first impact the animal was thrown several feet up the side of a slope of earth, from which she again fell upon the track and under the rear car. The car, filled with assorted humanity, was at once dislodged from the rails and dragged for a considerable distance, demolishing telegraph-poles and tearing down line-fences until finally it collided with a big stone and stopped. We were glad to read that nobody was seriously hurt. It is wonderful how near people can come in such cases to death and cheat the watchful old monster after all. Yet the satisfaction of illustrating this fact can hardly be considered a fair offset to the carelessness of cattle-owners who allow their stock to run about loose in the vicinity of railroads. We are also not a little surprised that a cow of breeding and possessed with power to discriminate between different roads, should have expected to find grass in the very middle of one of the great Vanderbilt iron arteries. Now there are roads where—but why should we point out pasturages to predatory bovines? Wonder if the Harlem cow "depreciated" any.

When Governor Dix comes to talk about the Latin language our confidence in the horizontality of his cerebrum is consummate and unmodified, for the Governor is at home there. As a classicist he has no living equal among Governors. If by any mischance the fullness of the official Gentiles should ever fail him, he can fall back upon the lingo of the ancient Roman patrician and teach it to the army in times of peace, with a certainty of much high-toned compensation. Seeing that college students and coroners' juries are so in need of more Latin it is a wonder that the Governor has been unmolested by them so long. In his Union College oration, in which he discussed the matter of roots, conjugations, declensions and gerunds—the Governor says our fault as a people is "diffusiveness of style;" in less classical phrase, he says we "slop over." Now, the inference he would have us draw is that if we would only learn to speak Latin we should inevitably condense more. Governor Dix is right, and we are glad to have him quote for the benefit of careless and ambitious extemporizers, the saying of Plutarch concerning Demosthenes:

"Haud temere quisquam Demosthenem audieret extempore dicentem; sed quum in concione sæpe sederet et populus nominatim eum exciret ad dicendum, nisi esset meditatus ad id et paratus, non procederet."

A good practice, and one we hereby commend to all concerned. If they don't understand it let them write to the Governor.

The Tilton-Beecher Case.

The Tilton letter will be read by the civilized world with great sorrow, and no thanks are due the reverend gentlemen whose wretched jealousy of Mr. Beecher led them to goad Tilton into making his statement. For with all the poor opinion entertained of Tilton by many, it must be conceded by all who have followed the management of the case through all its maze of technicalities that Tilton has been grossly wronged in the treatment he has received at the hands of Plymouth Church and those who have assumed to speak for its pastor. Mr. Shearman, lawyer-like, has treated the case as a lawyer would in court, and has miserably failed in consequence. We hold Henry Ward Beecher innocent until he speaks, even though Theodore Tilton's words are positive. Character has force more than equal to men's averments, and if a life of twenty-five years of unblemished purity and conspicuous service for God and humanity must be put on the defensive at the faintest whisper, then it is useless for men and women to build up character at all. And even if Beecher has committed what Tilton hints we are charitable enough to hope it an isolated yielding to an overwhelming temptation rather than a discovered index of a hidden character glossed over with professions of piety. But even a character of lifelong purity has no right to crush another that it may receive no stain, and that is what has been attempted with Mr. Tilton, who has been placed in a false position and denied again and again the right of a hearing, while at the same time goaded on to speaking. The case has been most bunglingly mismanaged throughout, but there seems no way out of it but for Mr. Tilton to accept Mr. Shearman's readiness to have Plymouth Church investigate any charges that Tilton may make. Let him now make those charges and let them be investigated, and we hope Tilton will be proved an infamous liar.

—It is a commendable fact that Collector Arthur and his Custom House squad let Congress act its own sweet will about the moeity law, not attempting in any way to influence them. Perhaps they've learned something to their advantage lately.

—Our Congress seems to be a pretty decent concern, after all. No less than thirteen members of the present British house of commons have been put out, neck and heels, for bribery, corruption, intimidation and such like irregularities. But then how many of our Congressmen ought to have been expelled?

—The peach-growers are predicting a short crop.

—Freights have fallen ten cents on the Erie Canal.

—A woman has just arrived in California who has made the full journey from the Missouri River on foot, camping at neight wherever she happened to be, and roughing it with as much nonchalance, apparently, as a child of the plains. She is after a recreant husband, who had fled to the Pacific coast, and the journey has evidently been good training for the discipline of the meeting.

—The Pennsylvania Railroad is completing arrangements for carrying the peach crop of the coming season. A lightning peach train will run from Delaware to Boston, reaching the markets of the latter eight hours after those in New York left by the same train. To do this the cars will be carried across the Hudson by floats, as they are now transported over the Delaware at Camden, and the train will be run at an average rate of forty miles an hour.

—Gold medals are to be given to each of the heroes of the Mill River calamity. Each medal is to have inscribed upon its face, "Mill River Reservoir Disaster, 1874," and upon the reverse a wreath, inside which is to be engraved the name of the recipient. They are two styles—one bearing on the face a horseback rider at full speed, and the other a man driving a horse and wagon at break-neck speed, with the torrent in the background. Cheney and Hillman are to have one of the former style, and Day and Graves of the latter.

The Financial Situation.

HAVANA, June 26.—An address has been presented to Captain General Concha signed by business men of all branches of trade. It represents that, "in view of the frightful condition of financial affairs, which threatens the ruin of the country and menaces the authority of your excellency, it is the duty of every good Spaniard to come to the aid of the government with such resources as he can command Gold to-day is quoted at 2.92 and will undoubtedly soon reach 10.00 if speedy and supreme efforts are not made to check the rise. Rates of foreign exchange, like those of gold, are also going up indefinitely. This upward movement if continued will soon bring about general bankruptcy, and will make the cost of the necessaries of life so high that the people will be unable to endure it. The consequences of this deplorable state of things will be incalculable. It is the duty of all to try to prevent it on this account, and for the above reasons we ask for the imposition of a tax at five per cent. on the riches of the island, which are represented by landed proprietors in city and country, and by commercial and banking institutions and others, to be paid quarterly for two years, beginning with July 1st, 1874. It is hoped that at the end of this period the war will be concluded and there will be no further necessity for such extreme measures." The subscribers to the above document pledge themselves to pay their part of the tax and anxiously await a decree levying the same and making the necessary provision for enforcing its collection. A meeting is to be held to-night at the palace of the Captain General, who will preside. All the heads of different branches of trade are invited to be present and discuss the financial situation.

Article 14 of the laws of July 4th, 1870, providing for the gradual abolition of slavery, declares that the government is to indemnify the owners of slaves emancipated by the law, and for that purpose an annual tax is to be imposed on all slaves between the ages of eleven and sixty years of 25 cents each.—Captain General Concha to-day issued a decree increasing the tax to 75 cents per capita.

It is reported that the government intends to establish a penal colony on the Isle of Pines, under the charge of officers of the army, whither will be sent all traitors, vagrants and incorrigibles.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Reforms in Egypt.

LONDON, June 26.—In the House of Commons to-day Captain Baillie Cochrane moved a resolution in favor of interference of the government for judicial reform in Egypt, because the English are deeply interested in the uninterrupted navigation of the Suez Canal. Captain Cochrane's motion was not agreed to.

Mr. Bourke, Under Foreign Secretary, stated that the chief obstacle to such reform was France, who hesitated to abandon the position she had acquired in Egypt. If she persisted in her refusal to conform with the views of the other powers the only course which remained for them would be to act without her.

Tory Opposition to the Public Worship Bill.

The opponents of the public worship regulation bill, which passed the House of Lords last night, declare that it is useless and dangerous; that it affects questions of doctrine unfavorably, attacks the ritualists unfairly and jeopardizes the union of church and state. The Marquis of Salisbury, Secretary for India, and other Tories vehemently opposed the measure, and it is understood will appeal to the House of Commons to reject it. The bill reorganizes the present cumbersome ecclesiastical courts so as to enable them to take speedy cognizance of new ceremonies.

The motion was defeated by a majority of five votes.

ITALY.

The Pope Determined to Remain in Rome.

ROME, June 26.—The Pope to-day received a deputation from the Roman nobility. He said the demonstration of Sunday last was a spontaneous and magnificent act of the people; the counter demonstration of Wednesday was the impious and miserable work of the sons of darkness. The Pope added that he had received a letter urging him to quit Rome, because his person was not safe; but he declared he would remain here as long as God permitted.

Last evening Sarah Jane Reeves, a colored girl ten years old, was committed to the county jail at Elizabeth, New Jersey, charged with attempting to poison the family of John R. Miller of Crawford. The girl was employed as a servant in the family of Mr. Miller, and yesterday morning placed enough creosote in the coffee and cream to kill twenty persons. When arrested she confessed the crime and said she made the attempt to kill the family because she had been badly treated by Mr. Miller. She expressed no sorrow for the act, but said she had tried hard to close her master's mouth for sure.

The Beecher-Tilton Scandal.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Mr. Beecher was present at the weekly prayer meeting of Plymouth Church this evening. The proceedings were of the usual devotional character and no reference whatever was made to the letter recently published by Mr. Tilton. After meeting Mr. Beecher, in conversation with a reporter, said he had at present no intention of saying anything in reply to the recent statements. He had a large pastorate under his charge and had no time for personal controversies. If, however, the examiners of Plymouth Church should decide that it would be well for him to speak out in regard to the recent charges, he would do so without hesitation.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Circular from Treasurer Spinner.

WASHINGTON, June, 26.—Treasurer Spinner has issued a circular respecting deposits of United States notes by national banks for the redemption of their circulating notes, as required by Sections 2 and 3 of the currency bill approved June 22d. Every national bank, national gold banks excepted, is requested to cause to be deposited in the Treasurer's office an amount of United States notes equal to five per centum of its circulation. In estimating the circulation upon which a percentage is required there must be included the notes of its own issue in possession of the bank, as well as those in actual circulation, and there should also be included any amounts that may have been returned to the Comptroller of Currency by the bank, and for which it is to receive new currency. The United States notes may be sent to the Treasurer under the contract of the Treasury Department with Adams' Express Company, and under the same regulations as are prescribed for the forwarding of notes and currency of the United States for redemption. Expenses of transportation will be paid by the department, which will hereafter be reimbursed for such expenses. If any bank prefer it may forward the required amount by drafts on New York, Boston or Philadelphia, drawn to the order of the Treasurer of the United States, and payable in United States notes. If so drawn and paid in such notes credit will be given to the bank when collected. If payment be not made in United States notes, the draft will be returned to the bank and the deposit of such notes required to be made by express. Acknowledgment will be made to each bank for its deposit when completed by remittance to it of a certificate in proper form.

Groundless Rumors Regarding Mr. Creswell.

Mr. Creswell is making arrangements to retire from office next week. Mr. Hale has not yet signified to the President his acceptance of the Postmaster Generalship. Mr. Creswell, in conversation with friends to-day, said his object in resigning was to resume his law practice; that the reports as to a prospective appointment to the Austrian mission were groundless, and that rumors of his going into the banking business are equally so, as he has no such intention at present.

By this appointment he is promoted from Major to Brigadier General, over the heads of Lieutenant Colonels and Colonels, some of whom have been in the service over forty years, and are ready for the retired list.

Dissatisfied Officials.

Government officials generally are setting up a howl because Congress increased the pay of the two Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury and left them out in the cold. Each one of the grumblers maintains that his special duties are the most important of any under the government.

SPORTING.

An Easy Victory for the Argonauta B. C.

NEW YORK, June 26.—A four-oared shell race took place this afternoon between the Buffalo Rowing Club and the Argonauta Boat Club of New Jersey, for the amateur championship of the United States. The cruise was from West Brighton, S. I., to the Newark Bay lighthouse, three miles, straight-away. The Buffalonians rowed in a paper shell, while the Argonautas rowed in a cedar shell. The former were the favorites. At 5:20 a good start was had, but the Buffalonians were somewhat slow, while their opponents settled to their work at once and gained half a length, which was increased to a length at the half-mile stake. At the Argonauta boat house the Jerseymen were two lengths ahead, which was maintained to the end. Time 16 m. 46 sec. The Buffalo crew attribute their failure to the rough water and strong wind. A large sum of money changed hands on the result.

THE INDIANS.

An Experiment in Self-Government.

PARSONS, Kan., June 25.—Important changes have taken place in the Indian Territory. All the agents of the civilized Indians have been relieved, excepting J. B. Jones, agent of the Cherokees, and a central agency has been established at Fort Gibson. The Cherokees, Choctaws, Creeks, Seminoles and Chickasaws and other civilized Indians will all be under agent Jones. This is regarded as an experiment on a small scale to familiarize the Indians with self-government under the future territorial organization. A number of prominent Indians will take strong grounds in their coming annual elections in favor of sectionizing their county and territorial governments and citizenship in the United States. The Oaklahoma Star, published at Caddo, in the Choctaw nation, openly and ably advocates this doctrine.

The Sioux Not Anxious for a Fight.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 26.—From all the information so far obtained it does not look as if the Sioux in Dakotah are particularly anxious for a fight with the Seventh Cavalry, which they can have any day. SAUGERTIES.

—"Will," how about that frog you shot up at the Saw Creek that hadn't any hind legs?

—Blind Tom, the musical wonder, is to give an entertainment in Maxwell's Hall on the evening of July 3d.

—We are informed that there are living in School District No. 23, Quarryville, twenty-four widows and five widowers. Some of them are just nob. This is something that old bachelors ought too look after.

—A long, lank specimen of a Hoosier, who drives a stone team through our place, is bound to be ahead on the high hat question. He has had his hat painted full of different colored circles with the significant appellation of "Zeke of Fish Creek" on one of them.

—That frog supper put a stop to our reporter's writing up the spiritual seance for the present. The spirits have to take a back seat when frogs come near our reporters.

—At a meeting held on Thursday night it was finally resolved that we are to have a celebration on the Fourth. The orator of the day is Judge Osborn of Catskill. Steam Fire Engine Company No. 2 of Catskill has been invited to visit us and compete with our steamer, Minnehaha, for the honor of the two "cities." The invitation has been accepted, and the Catskill boys will be here. H. D. Laflin has been elected Marshal and Charles Davis reader of the Declaration of Independence. We shall have a good time. All the people of Kingston are invited, providing they pay for their own liquor, firecrackers and gingerbread.

—A man was seen on the roof of Mr. Higgins' house last Thursday night about 12 o'clock by their servant girl. She ran to Mrs. Higgins' room, woke her up, and told her what she had seen. Mrs. Higgins ran to the front window and gave the alarm. A number of gentlemen passing by at the time ran around to the rear of the house, but Mrs. H. says he jumped off the roof and over Mr. Post's fence before they could get there. No trace of him could be found. No doubt he knew Mr. H. was away from home and thought it a good opportunity to make a haul.

—We are told that they had quite an interesting time in Quarryville on Tuesday evening of this week. About 7 o'clock a lady made her appearance in the street who, becoming quite noisy and rousing the whole neighborhood from their slumbers, 'Squire Hommell cut her career short by putting her in the lockup, setting two volunteer guards, Teetsell and Fitzpatrick, but they falling asleep about 4 A. M. Cook, the blacksmith, an intimate friend of the lady, came along and assisted her to escape.

—An umbrella was found on fire in a farmer's wagon, near Poughkeepsie, the other day. This brings up an important question—"Will umbrellas prematurely combust?"

—A Poughkeepsie car driver gets forty persons in his car, most of them Vassar students at that. Vassar diet must be very light or those females don't patronize crinoline.

—The Poughkeepsie News says that rumors were rife in Poughkeepsie that the Dutchess & Columbia Railroad intend turning the switches against the Poughkeepsie & Eastern road above Stissing. No hostile steps have, however, thus far been taken.

CITY NOTES.

—Lots of toads on Hasbrouck avenue after the shower.

—There are a great many strange faces in town—summer visitors or travelers.

—The Board of Health made the rounds of a portion of the Strand on Friday.

—A steer escaped from the shambles on Friday, and made a sensation in Mill street.

—People begin to conclude that those new horse cars, like other good things, come slow.

—The biggest pair of shoes in town was displayed by a Ferry street shoemaker on Friday.

—The prospect is that it is going to be a mighty dull day here on the Fourth, more shame to us!

—There is a "concourse of sweet smells" from the gutters of portions of Union avenue just now. Whar's the Health Officer?

—Considering the dullness of business and the presence of the panic, the number of new buildings going up in the city is remarkably large.

—A down-town merchant planted a lot of cherry-stones in front of his place of business on Friday. But it's no use, you can't make even grass grow in Rondout streets.

—The Newburgh Journal wants to know what has become of Tom Collins. We don't know. When last seen or heard of here he was wanting to buy an L. Green plough.

—The German women who labor in the fields and gardens of the suburbs may now be seen early in the morning as they "shoulder hoes and march away" to their daily work.

—Strangers passing the new City Hall are often heard inquiring who is building such a large residence. They ought to go inside and look at the lock-up and other municipal fixin's.

—How careless some people are! Van Deusen Brothers leave their old safe standing out on the sidewalk night after night, and by-and-by some one will come along, pick it up and carry it off.

—George Dean's handsome little propeller is considered a great desideratum for small parties who wish to enjoy a pleasant sail. It has been engaged by a lot of young people for the Fourth.

—The dustiest piece of road in the city is Union avenue between Newkirk avenue and Stuyvesant street. It takes about three hours to work up the deepest mud into the most palpable dust there.

—That was a little family unpleasantness on Friday when an elderly woman walking along with a young one suddenly stopped and accused the young woman of having stolen her pocket-book. It was touching to observe the filial feeling expressed in the young woman's remark—"Well, by ——, you'll have to prove that, you —— old ——."

—We believe the good health of our young ladies is due in great measure to their early rising and active exercise. A ramble in the opening hours of day will reveal many of them at work among flowers and vines. This sort of thing gives a young girl an appetite for breakfast that would horrify a pale and faded ball-room belle.

—The Ellenville Journal says "The Journal is set up by the handsomest young men in the county." No you don't, Mr. Journal. The Freeman has a corps of compositors whose beauty is of that dazzling order that they never turn on the full effect at once. When they get their good clothes on "they have to take a dog along to keep the girls away." And they're some on "settin' up," too—take it either way.

—We are glad to notice another improvement and also the indication of the influence for good that The Freeman exists. We didn't expect such a thorough reformation in that office of Abbey & Son just because we happened to mention something about cobwebs; but we are pleased to see the rejuvenating work of the whitewash brush, the purifying influence of the mop and a general slickin' up all round. One more modest suggestion—hadn't you better fresco those bare beams in the storehouse? It would add greatly to the aesthetic effect, and make more of a fitness, so to speak.

—These pleasant afternoons are just right for sailing on the creek or river, and no matter how hot it is on shore, there is always a brisk wind upon the water that delightfully moderates the temperature and sends the blood merrily through the system. We wonder that more of our people do not enjoy the exhilarating and life-giving recreation of sailing. Almost any afternoon a short cruise can be taken on some of the many tow-boats plying in and out of the harbor; then there are the Martin and Eagle, the Cornell and Baldwin. One can take a trip down on the former and meet the latter on their up trip at Newburgh or some other point, or can take the night boats at certain states of the tide and meet the Powell at Poughkeepsie. Such pleasant little excursions relieve the monotony of business or house work, and wonderfully invigorate one. Even a trip across the river and back on the Lark makes a man feel better.

A KINGSTON LAD IN RUSSIA.

Mr. Augustus Hayes Does Moscow.

Mr. Augustus Hayes, son of William M. Hayes of this city, who went to Europe in the spring of 1873 and has been traveling on the continent and attending school at Hanover in Prussia, has made a tour of Russia, Denmark, Norway and Sweden. He will return home about the 1st of August.

In a letter received a few days ago by his friends in this city he gives a description of his journey through a portion of Russia which some of the readers of The Freeman will no doubt find quite interesting: "As we entered Russia we found the land level and generally barren. We passed through a number of small Russian, or perhaps they might better be called Polish villages, some of which consisted merely of a collection of huts, roughly built, with roofs covered with ungainly looking shingles or thatched with straw. The people who inhabited these places were clothed in ragged, common furs, the coat being long and generally belted at the waist. On their feet were fur stockings, bound to their legs with strings, or sandals woven with rushes and leather. They seemed to be very sluggish and ignorant, and live almost entirely on a hard, coarse, black bread, and a kind of thick, indescribable milk.

The first stopping-place we came to was Warsaw, which is beautifully situated on the River Vistula, but is of very little interest to travelers. Here we first saw a genuine Russian church, with its many gilded domes, that glittered in the bright sunlight and made the sight a novel as well as beautiful one. We next passed through Smolensk, a city somewhat noted in the history of Europe, and after a ride of 2,000 miles were very glad to catch our first sight of the domes of Moscow in the distance. We first visited the Hermitage Gardens, a beautiful park devoted to amusements, such as singing, instrumental music, gymnastics, foot-racing, swimming races, &c.

The Kremlin was the next object of curiosity. This is a large enclosure, in which is situated the Emperor's palace, a number of churches, a cathedral, the tower of John the Great, a convent, and the arsenal. Its circumference is about 7,300 feet, and the entrances are by five different gates, all of which are well guarded. The buildings of the Kremlin have at different times been destroyed by fire, but the great wall that encircles it is still preserved in its ancient form. We made a visit to the Sacristy of the Holy Patriarchs, and found it contained a number of objects of great antiquity. There were a great many robes said to have been worn by the former patriarchs, some of which are so heavily laden with precious stones they weigh from fifty to sixty pounds—some are entirely covered with pearls.

The Cathedral of Assumption, we found like most of the Russian churches, rich in gold, silver and precious stones. The emeralds alone in one picture are worth over $50,000. In this place the Emperors of Russia are coronated. Near by is the tower of John the Great, which consists of five stories, four being octangular and the fifth cylindrical. The height is some 325 feet, and in it are suspended thirty-four bells of different sizes, the largest weighing 128,000 pounds, while the two smallest are made of silver and are very rich in tone. From the top of this tower the traveler has a fine view of the city, which covers a tract of country of over twenty miles. The streets are rough and irregular, and in fact it is said there is not a single straight street in it. The most prominent objects are the cathedrals, which tower above the houses, 370 in all, and form rather a beautiful picture, as each church has from three to nine gilded domes that look like great balls of fire in the sunlight.

Before leaving the place we paid a visit to the great bell, the largest in the world, which is nineteen feet three inches in height, sixty feet nine inches in circumference, and two feet thick. The total weight is 444,000 pounds. This bell fell from the tower in 1737, and broke out of it a small (?) piece, a little over six feet in length, weighing 220,000 pounds.

We found while in Moscow the great custom with all classes is the drinking of tea. Wherever a Russian goes he orders tea, which means a little pot of tea and another of hot water. A glass is poured half full from the tea pot, and then filled with hot water. In the course of an evening the number of glasses made away with is enormous. In place of our lager beer saloons, here they have tea saloons, where the people gather to drink tea and smoke. A piece of lemon is generally put in the tea instead of milk, which gives it rather a pleasant flavor, and the liquid is drank so hot the throats of these people must be made of cast-iron to stand it. Porters and beggars always ask for tea money when they make a demand of the stranger.

In this city is a riding-school. The building is 560 by 158 feet, and the roof is held without columns, being one of the largest spans without supports in the world.

After leaving Moscow we went direct to St. Petersburg. One of the first places we visited was the palace, and in this found one of the most interesting sights was that of the room containing the crown jewels. The great Orloff diamond, which surmounts the Imperial scepter, can here be seen. It is very large, and weighs 194¾ carats, while the largest diamond in England weighs only about 186 carats. On the top of the crown is a cross formed of diamonds supported by a large uncut ruby. This ruby in turn is supported by eleven diamonds, while on each side of the central arch is a hoop of thirty-eight very large and perfect pearls. The crown is indeed a fortune in itself, and is extremely brilliant with its multitude of sparkling stones.

One of the most notable places to visit in St. Petersburg is the Hermitage Museum and Gallery, which is filled with an immense collection of works of art, antiquities, sculptures, a library containing all the principal works, both ancient and modern, and over 200,000 engravings. The gallery of paintings is only excelled by that of Dresden, and contains at present 1,635 selected paintings. These are from Raphael, Rembrandt, Rubens, Murillo, Van Dyke, Corregio, and in fact the touch of the brush of every great painter the world has known can be seen in this gallery of art. It is impossible to describe them, but there is a fascinating beauty about some of these pictures that can only be appreciated when seen.

After leaving the gallery of paintings we entered Peter the Great's gallery, which contains all the pieces or specimens of that deceased magnate's handicraft, which are not of the best workmanship and only of value because of the place which the maker occupies in history.

We took a small boat and crossed the river Neva to the fortress of Peter and Paul, the cathedral being the great point of interest. Its tower is 387 feet high, and within the walls of the building are the ashes of the dead sovereigns of Russia. These walls are covered with old flags captured on different battle fields.

On the bank of this river is Peter the Great's cottage, which was the first palace erected by Peter. Its length is fifty-four feet and breadth twenty feet, and there are two rooms and a kitchen. In one of the rooms is Peter's chair, which is made so the occupant must sit astride and lean his arms on what would ordinarily be the back. On this back is a board to answer the purposes of a writing desk. The Emperor of that day certainly lived very plainly, at least in comparison to the luxury and magnificence of the present generation of rulers."

Mr. Hayes further says, according to the statements of several Americans who are doing business in Russia, that country is a place where an energetic, shrewd American can become a millionaire in the course of a few years, and he relates the circumstance of two men from the south who amassed large fortunes and lost them during our civil war, but who returned to Russia, and are now nearly as wealthy as before. The distance from Berlin to Moscow is over 2,000 miles, and the party traveled it in two days and seventeen hours.

Cruelty to Animals.

We recently announced that Constable Tammany had been appointed agent here for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. We were heartily glad that such an appointment was made, for if there is a place on earth where more outrageous cruelty is practiced on dumb beasts, especially horses, than in this pretty city of ours, we have yet to read a description of it. So there is abundant opportunity to exercise the functions of an agent of the society above mentioned, and we shall expect the law in this respect to be rigidly enforced. Just now the business of arresting criminals—no matter how many offences are committed—seems to be rather dull, so Constable Tammany can turn his attention toward arresting drivers possessing far more of brute nature than the poor animals they pitilessly belabor. Our attention has been called to two cases within as many days. One was that of a teamster who mercilessly whipped his team, drawing a very heavy load, to force them forward on the ferry-boat Lark, that they might in turn drive another man's team, which was blocking the passage, out of the way. A word to the man or at most taking the abstructing team by the head and leading them to one side would have removed the difficulty, but the teamster instead lashed his own poor horses almost into a frenzy to accomplish the purpose. Another case occurred up town where a man who is considered a good citizen and a fair dealer, deliberately pounded his horse till it fell down, bleeding and trembling in the street. We are furthermore informed that this man makes a practice of outrageously beating his horses, and if this is so it is time the law taught him that "a merciful man is merciful to his beast," if he hasn't learn't it from his creed. Officer Tammany can have the names of both these parties, and if he will walk up or down Union or Hasbrouck avenues almost any day he can find enough more cases to keep his hands full for some time to come; and if he will take the matter up fearlessly he will have the support of all decent men—and the other kind he needn't care about.

Good Understanding.

We have all of us heard of and a good many seen "the big boot in Chatham street," and we acknowledge that it is pretty immense; but there is a pair of brogans being built in a shoe shop in Ferry street that will make formidable rivals of that celebrated piece of Crispinism. These shoes are of such Brobdingnagian proportions that the boss shoemaker has to enter them by climbing up a step-ladder and then letting himself down into the mysterious depth below. An assistant stays on the outside and drives the nails through and he clinches them inside. People who had a glimpse of the monstrosities as they passed the door gave them little thought, as they took them for Saratoga trunks, and on that hypothesis there was nothing extraordinary in the size. The shoemaker is in trouble, though, now. He has the shoes about finished, but he don't know how to get them off his hands and on the owner's feet. One proposition is that the roof be lifted off and the man can then put the shoes on, lift them out and stride off. Another suggestion is that the front of the building be knocked out, a way constructed down to the dock and the shoes launched overboard, when the owner might hang his feet off the wharf and tie the shoes on. This is non est comatibus (we've been reading coroner's inquests lately, and that accounts for the Latin), however, because of the narrowness of the creek, which wouldn't permit the brogans to be warped around. Those shoes will have to be utilized as coal bins on the Company's dock.

Got What He Deserved.

A couple of fellows from Whiteport drove into the stable yard of Hamilton's Hotel on Friday afternoon. Both were intoxicated, and in that reckless, devil-may care state intoxication frequently superinduces in the minds of men of ordinary intelligence or bravery. So they thought it would be a fine thing to try and run that stable, a work they began by driving in through the door, capsizing several articles standing about and inaugurating an animation among the horses, wagons and stable men. But when remonstrated with they jumped from the wagon, peeled off their coats and intimated their intention of wading through the company there assembled, a performance which was suddenly ended by an unlooked for resistance on the part of the gentleman in charge of the stables, who handled his biceps and the butt end of a horsewhip to such good effect that both men were soon put hors de combat and laid out with swelled and bloody heads. The name of one is David Spear. His companion was a Dutchman, whose name we didn't learn. Now we hope they'll go home and ponder over their deeds and the lesson taught them.

Commencement Exercises of Grammar School No. 7.

The above-named city school held its commencement yesterday afternoon. A perfect crowd of the patrons and friends of the school was in attendance. Although the programme was very long, the audience sat intently interested to the close. The efficient and accomplished Principal, Mr. C. M. Ryon, was abundant in labors for the comfort of his visitors. The pupils all did well; none failed while many gave promise of future scholarship and power in particular directions. In the matter of reading, several young ladies showed both native ability and the great care taken by their teachers in training them. Every department of the school acquitted itself with marked credit in exercises peculiar to each. It is unnecessary to wish that this school were better known, for its accommodations are already crowded to excess; but we do wish that the public would learn to appreciate and better compensate the hard and intelligent work bestowed upon its children there by Mr. Ryon and his competent corps of assistants. Our limited space debars us from specializing some of yesterday's efforts, which otherwise we should be glad to do. We speak only the sentiment of all in saying that Grammar School No. 7 is one of the best managed of its class in the state.

A Phenomenon.

Passersby on the creek were very much puzzled at a singular phenomenon above Mr. Crane's residence at Ponckhockie on Friday; a peculiar-looking object being suspended over the roof, and its eccentric movements, distinctly seen against the grey clouds, peremptorily arrested the gaze of every one who turned their eyes toward the fair Ponckhockie scenery. They looked and wondered, and wondered and looked, as the strange figure gyrated this way and that, now moving up and then down, and gave up guessing in despair and wonderment, until one passenger, a green countryman from way back, ejaculated "Wall I swow! if that air thing that looks so much like a snappin' turkle moving to a fish line aint a human!" And so it was—a fellow swinging to the flag-staff engaged in the work of embellishing it with a fresh coat of paint.

Religious.

Professor John Dewitt of New Brunswick will preach in the Second Reformed Church on Sunday morning and evening. Professor Dewitt is considered a very eloquent preacher. A committee from this Church go to Peekskill to-day to extend a call to Rev. James Demarest, Jr., to the pastorate of the Church.

Dedication of a Church.

The M. E. Church at South Woodstock was dedicated on Thursday, 25th inst. Rev. D. D. Lindsley preached in the morning and Rev. J. J. Dean in the evening. The sum of $900 was asked for to pay the debt, whereupon the people present handed over $1,000, which happy result greatly pleased everybody.

Rhinebeck & Connecticut Railroad.

The cars are now running from Rhinebeck to Ancram. This enterprise will form an important interest in eastern Columbia, says the Republican. We were at the terminus at Rhinebeck recently and saw several car loads o produce come in from Gallatinville. We inquired the freight on hay and learned that it was seven cents per hundred, or $1.40 per ton. Heretofore from that section hay has been transported by the farmers to Tivoli or Barrytown, a distance of about twenty miles, making forty miles for the round trip and occupying from ten to fifteen hours. As there are stations at Mount Ross, Jackson Corners and Elizaville the railroad will drain that country of freight which will be carried to the river at Rhinebeck, instead of going to Tivoli and Barrytown as formerly, and the result will be that the freight business will be greatly damaged at the former places while the line at Rhinebeck will be largely increased in business. The railroad is a flank movement on Tivoli and Barrytown, and also in a small degree on Hudson. As will be seen from the rates above-mentioned, the farmers will cease to transport their own hay and other produce when it can be sent by rail at so moderate a rate. They cannot afford it themselves. Taking into account a day's work for a man, the use of a team and the heavy wear on wagons and harness from three to five dollars a day must be counted as the offset to the $1.40. We learn that the freighters at Tivoli and Barrytown are much exercised in mind over their loss of business, but there is no help for ti—trade will follow the most feasible channels. Coal from Rondout will be the chief traffic of the road, and this will divert some of the business now done by the Boston road.

A Poet's Last Effusion.

We saw a letter from one of our best American poets to his little "ten-year-old," who is spending the summer on the Weinbergh, which ended in this manner:

> "Eat, boy, eat!
> Bread and meat.
> Eat and grow fat;
> I want you to be that—
> For a boy that ranks among the first-raters
> Must fill himself up with meat and potaters.
> Be a good boy,
> (I know that you can)
> For a good little boy
> Will make a good man.
> PAPA DICK,
> (With a big stick.)"

Election of Officers.

At a regular meeting of Aretas Lodge No. 172, I. O. of O. F., held on Wednesday evening, June 24th, the following officers were elected: James Whittaker, N. G.; Marks Jacobs, V. G.; Charles L. Santer, Secretary; Joseph Tubby, Treasurer.

Fourth of July.

South Rondout comes to time as usual on the Fourth, and will have a jolly pic-nic at German Hill, under the management of Jacob Fox. Music, dancing and refreshments and South Rondout's bright-eyed daughters to grace the scene! Of course there'll be lots of fun.

Scarcity of Work.

A Captain of one of the D. & H. canal boats states that he could have brought a boatload of men from Rondout last trip who would have been willing to work for their board if employment could be found for them here.—Honesdale Herald.

OUR FREE PARLIAMENT.

The First Reformed Church Wall.

GOLDEN HILL, June 26th, 1874.

EDITOR FREEMAN: In your issue of to-day I notice an unintentional, but quite serious, misstatement. It occurs in your thoughtful paragraph drawing attention to the dangerous condition of the First Reformed Church of Kingston proper.

My father, the late Whiting Weeks, was not the builder of that edifice; nor did he make any reference to it shortly before his death. It was erected, I think, by Mr. E. T. Van Nostrand; my father, however, did build the Second Reformed Church, on Fair street, and from this I presume came your mistake. My father was a builder far too careful, accurate and skilled to put up any structure on a defective foundation. In regard to the church in question, and the extent of his business relations therewith, the following letter gives evidence; it was written, as you see, over thirteen years ago:

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 11th, 1861.

WHITING WEEKS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—At a meeting of the Consistory of the First Dutch Church, held last evening, the undersigned were appointed a committee to examine and report the condition of the church building; more particularly of the east wall of said church, and for that purpose to employ some competent person to aid them in that examination. The committee have decided to ask you to come to Kingston and aid them in this examination, at your earliest convenience.

You will please advise me, and name the day you can be in town;—this week, if YOU CAN; next week, SURE. Yours respectfully, J. E. OSTRANDER.

WM. T. SWART, JAMES KIERSTED, J. E. OSTRANDER, } Committee.

My father was living at that time in Staatsburgh, and I have not his reply to this letter at hand, but as the committee, all of whom are still living, I believe, will remember he said after a careful consideration of the subject, he was of opinion, so far as he was enabled to judge by appearances, that the church could not with certainty be considered safe; that it was apparently the great weight of the vaulted roof which held it together; that it might not stand a year; that it might stand twenty years, possibly longer; but he did not think it would be trustworthy longer than twenty years.

One or two years ago, as he did not wish in case an accident occurred to have the responsibility for it rest in any way upon him, he re-stated in substance, the above words to one of the Consistory.

My father was a man of quiet and considerate judgment, the term of years he settled upon is slipping away unnoticed, the respon sible parties will do well to remember his words, that we may not be visited by a catastrophe worse than that of Richmond, or Roxbury, or Syracuse. Yours, very truly,

EDWARD OLIN WEEKS.

The First Reformed Church Wall.

KINGSTON, June 26th, 1874.

EDITOR FREEMAN.—In your issue of to-day, under heading of "A Warning," your correspondent refers to the wall of the First Reformed Church of Kingston as being unsafe, and that Mr. Weeks, the mason who built the church, (which by the way is incorrect, as Mr. Weeks did not build the church), before his death stated that it was very unsafe and might go down at any moment. The writer of the article could not have been well informed on the subject, as you will see by the following:

On the records of our church we find under date of April 27, 1861, that a committee composed of Whiting Weeks, Edward Brink and John P. Folant, was appointed to examine the walls, and their report was that there was no danger to be feared from it.

Again to-day, June 26, 1874, Messrs. Edward Brink, William Darling, John R. Freer and John P. Folant, all practical mechanics, in presence of several members of the Consistory very thoroughly examined every point and authorize the use of their names in saying that the building is safe in every respect, and that there has been no yielding of the walls since the last examination, thirteen years ago.

Besides, Mr. John P. Folant, a member of the church, has examined it twice a year for twenty years, with no perceptible change in the wall. Mr. Darling and Mr. Brink, who worked upon the church during the whole period of the construction, both say that when the east wall was put up it was out of line as it now is, viz., seven and one-half inches at the top.

ROBERT WILSON, Church Warden.

How is This, Charles?

MR. EDITOR:—You have undoubtedly seen in the New Paltz Times of this week an article entitled "Hang 'Em," written in that chaste and elegant style for which the Times is noted, and bearing various ear-marks to signify its authorship. It is not to our purpose to criticise the language, however, or in any way to demur to the style of composition, for people who don't write very often for the newspapers cannot be supposed to possess the ease, polish and clearness of a regular scribbler. But the article aforesaid is of interest as showing to the close observer of the Times' conduct the direction the wind is blowing just now—the only question unsettled being as to what amount the wind blows. In plain English, Charlie, how big was that roll of greenbacks? RAILROADER.

New Paltz, June 25th, 1874.

Why is This Thus?

Yesterday a telegram left at the Rondout office at 1:45 P. M. was returned to the sender a 4:30 P. M. with the excuse—"Can't raise the operator at Kingston." These delays occur frequently. Can't something be done to wake up the operator at upper Kingston and relieve ONE WHO SUFFERS.

CITY NOTES.

—Lots of toads on Hasbrouck avenue after the shower.

—There are a great many strange faces in town—summer visitors or travelers.

—The Board of Health made the rounds of a portion of the Strand on Friday.

—A steer escaped from the shambles on Friday, and made a sensation in Mill street.

—People begin to conclude that those new horse cars, like other good things, come slow.

—The biggest pair of shoes in town was displayed by a Ferry street shoemaker on Friday.

—The prospect is that it is going to be a mighty dull day here on the Fourth, more shame to us!

—There is a "concourse of sweet smells" from the gutters of portions of Union avenue just now. What's the Health Officer?

—Considering the dullness of business and the presence of the panic, the number of new buildings going up in the city is remarkably large.

—A down-town merchant planted a lot of cherry-stones in front of his place of business on Friday. But it's no use, you can't make even grass grow in Rondout streets.

—The Newburgh Journal wants to know what has become of Tom Collins. We don't know. When last seen or heard of here he was wanting to buy an L. Green plough.

—The German women who labor in the fields and gardens of the suburbs may now be seen early in the morning as they "shoulder hoes and march away" to their daily work.

—Strangers passing the new City Hall are often heard inquiring who is building such a large residence. They ought to go inside and look at the lock-up and other municipal fixin's.

—How careless some people are! Van Deusen Brothers leave their old safe standing out on the sidewalk night after night, and by-and-by some one will come along, pick it up and carry it off.

—George Dean's handsome little propeller is considered a great desideratum for small parties who wish to enjoy a pleasant sail. It has been engaged by a lot of young people for the Fourth.

—The dustiest piece of road in the city is Union avenue between Newkirk avenue and Stuyvesant street. It takes about three hours to work up the deepest mud into the most palpable dust there.

—That was a little family unpleasantness on Friday when an elderly woman walking along with a young one suddenly stopped and accused the young woman of having stolen her pocket-book. It was touching to observe the filial feeling expressed in the young woman's remark—"Well, by ——, you'll have to prove that, you —— old ——."

—We believe the good health of our young ladies is due in great measure to their early rising and active exercise. A ramble in the opening hours of day will reveal many of them at work among flowers and vines. This sort of thing gives a young girl an appetite for breakfast that would horrify a pale and faded ball-room belle.

—The Ellenville Journal says "The Journal is set up by the handsomest young men in the county." No you don't, Mr. Journal. The Freeman has a corps of compositors whose beauty is of that dazzling order that they never turn on the full effect at once. When they get their good clothes on "they have to take a dog along to keep the girls away." And they're some on "settin' up," too—take it either way.

—We are glad to notice another improvement and also the indication of the influence for good that The Freeman exists. We didn't expect such a thorough reformation in that office of Abbey & Son just because we happened to mention something about cobwebs; but we are pleased to see the rejuvenating work of the whitewash brush, the purifying influence of the mop and a general slickin' up all round. One more modest suggestion—hadn't you better fresco those bare beams in the storehouse? It would add greatly to the aesthetic effect, and make more of a fitness, so to speak.

—These pleasant afternoons are just right for sailing on the creek or river, and no matter how hot it is on shore, there is always a brisk wind upon the water that delightfully moderates the temperature and sends the blood merrily through the system. We wonder that more of our people do not enjoy the exhilarating and life-giving recreation of sailing. Almost any afternoon a short cruise can be taken on some of the many tow-boats plying in and out of the harbor; then there are the Martin and Eagle, the Cornell and Baldwin. One can take a trip down on the former and meet the latter on their up trip at Newburgh or some other point, or can take the night boats at certain states of the tide and meet the Powell at Poughkeepsie. Such pleasant little excursions relieve the monotony of business or house work, and wonderfully invigorate one. Even a trip across the river and back on the Lark makes a man feel better.

A KINGSTON LAD IN RUSSIA.

Mr. Augustus Hayes Does Moscow.

Mr. Augustus Hayes, son of William M. Hayes of this city, who went to Europe in the spring of 1873 and has been traveling on the continent and attending school at Hanover in Prussia, has made a tour of Russia, Denmark, Norway and Sweden. He will return home about the 1st of August.

In a letter received a few days ago by his friends in this city he gives a description of his journey through a portion of Russia which some of the readers of The Freeman will no doubt find quite interesting: "As we entered Russia we found the land level and generally barren. We passed through a number of small Russian, or perhaps they might better be called Polish villages, some of which consisted merely of a collection of huts, roughly built, with roofs covered with ungainly looking shingles or thatched with straw. The people who inhabited these places were clothed in ragged, common furs, the coat being long and generally belted at the waist. On their feet were fur stockings, bound to their legs with strings, or sandals woven with rushes and leather. They seemed to be very sluggish and ignorant, and live almost entirely on a hard, coarse, black bread, and a kind of thick, indescribable milk.

The first stopping-place we came to was Warsaw, which is beautifully situated on the River Vistula, but is of very little interest to travelers. Here we first saw a genuine Russian church, with its many gilded domes, that glittered in the bright sunlight and made the sight a novel as well as beautiful one. We next passed through Smolensk, a city somewhat noted in the history of Europe, and after a ride of 2,000 miles were very glad to catch our first sight of the domes of Moscow in the distance. We first visited the Hermitage Gardens, a beautiful park devoted to amusements, such as singing, instrumental music, gymnastics, foot-racing, swimming races, &c.

The Kremlin was the next object of curiosity. This is a large enclosure, in which is situated the Emperor's palace, a number of churches, a cathedral, the tower of John the Great, a convent, and the arsenal. Its circumference is about 7,300 feet, and the entrances are by five different gates, all of which are well guarded. The buildings of the Kremlin have at different times been destroyed by fire, but the great wall that encircles it is still preserved in its ancient form. We made a visit to the Sacristy of the Holy Patriarchs, and found it contained a number of objects of great antiquity. There were a great many robes said to have been worn by the former patriarchs, some of which are so heavily laden with precious stones they weigh from fifty to sixty pounds—some are entirely covered with pearls.

The Cathedral of Assumption, we found like most of the Russian churches, rich in gold, silver and precious stones. The emeralds alone in one picture are worth over $50,000. In this place the Emperors of Russia are coronated. Near by is the tower of John the Great, which consists of five stories, four being octangular and the fifth cylindrical. The height is some 325 feet, and in it are suspended thirty-four bells of different sizes, the largest weighing 128,000 pounds, while the two smallest are made of silver and are very rich in tone. From the top of this tower the traveler has a fine view of the city, which covers a tract of country of over twenty miles. The streets are rough and irregular, and in fact it is said there is not a single straight street in it. The most prominent objects are the cathedrals, which tower above the houses, 370 in all, and form rather a beautiful picture, as each church has from three to nine gilded domes that look like great balls of fire in the sunlight.

Before leaving the place we paid a visit to the great bell, the largest in the world, which is nineteen feet three inches in height, sixty feet nine inches in circumference, and two feet thick. The total weight is 444,000 pounds. This bell fell from the tower in 1737, and broke out of it a small (?) piece, a little over six feet in length, weighing 220,000 pounds.

We found while in Moscow the great custom with all classes is the drinking of tea. Wherever a Russian goes he orders tea, which means a little pot of tea and another of hot water. A glass is poured half full from the tea pot, and then filled with hot water. In the course of an evening the number of glasses made away with is enormous. In place of our lager beer saloons, here they have tea saloons, where the people gather to drink tea and smoke. A piece of lemon is generally put in the tea instead of milk, which gives it rather a pleasant flavor, and the liquid is drank so hot the throats of these people must be made of cast-iron to stand it. Porters and beggars always ask for tea money when they make a demand of the stranger.

In this city is a riding-school. The building is 560 by 158 feet, and the roof is held without columns, being one of the largest spans without supports in the world.

After leaving Moscow we went direct to St. Petersburg. One of the first places we visited was the palace, and in this found one of the most interesting sights was that of the room containing the crown jewels. The great Orloff diamond, which surmounts the Imperial scepter, can here be seen. It is very large, and weighs 194¾ carats, while the largest diamond in England weighs only about 186 carats. On the top of the crown is a cross formed of diamonds supported by a large uncut ruby. This ruby in turn is supported by eleven diamonds, while on each side of the central arch is a hoop of thirty-eight very large and perfect pearls. The crown is indeed a fortune in itself, and is extremely brilliant with its multitude of sparkling stones.

One of the most notable places to visit in St. Petersburg is the Hermitage Museum and Gallery, which is filled with an immense collection of works of art, antiquities, sculptures, a library containing all the principal works, both ancient and modern, and over 200,000 engravings. The gallery of paintings is only excelled by that of Dresden, and contains at present 1,635 selected paintings. These are from Raphael, Rembrandt, Rubens, Murillo, Van Dyke, Corregio, and in fact the touch of the brush of every great painter the world has known can be seen in this gallery of art. It is impossible to describe them, but there is a fascinating beauty about some of these pictures that can only be appreciated when seen.

After leaving the gallery of paintings we entered Peter the Great's gallery, which contains all the pieces or specimens of that deceased magnate's handicraft, which are not of the best workmanship and only of value because of the place which the maker occupies in history.

We took a small boat and crossed the river Neva to the fortress of Peter and Paul, the cathedral being the great point of interest. Its tower is 387 feet high, and within the walls of the building are the ashes of the dead sovereigns of Russia. These walls are covered with old flags captured on different battle fields.

On the bank of this river is Peter the Great's cottage, which was the first palace erected by Peter. Its length is fifty-four feet and breadth twenty feet, and there are two rooms and a kitchen. In one of the rooms is Peter's chair, which is made so the occupant must sit astride and lean his arms on what would ordinarily be the back. On this back is a board to answer the purposes of a writing desk. The Emperor of that day certainly lived very plainly, at least in comparison to the luxury and magnificence of the present generation of rulers."

Mr. Hayes further says, according to the statements of several Americans who are doing business in Russia, that country is a place where an energetic, shrewd American can become a millionaire in the course of a few years, and he relates the circumstance of two men from the south who amassed large fortunes and lost them during our civil war, but who returned to Russia, and are now nearly as wealthy as before. The distance from Berlin to Moscow is over 2,000 miles, and the party traveled it in two days and seventeen hours.

Cruelty to Animals.

We recently announced that Constable Tammany had been appointed agent here for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. We were heartily glad that such an appointment was made, for if there is a place on earth where more outrageous cruelty is practiced on dumb beasts, especially horses, than in this pretty city of ours, we have yet to read a description of it. So there is abundant opportunity to exercise the functions of an agent of the society above mentioned, and we shall expect the law in this respect to be rigidly enforced. Just now the business of arresting criminals—no matter how many offences are committed—seems to be rather dull, so Constable Tammany can turn his attention toward arresting drivers possessing far more of brute nature than the poor animals they pitilessly belabor. Our attention has been called to two cases within as many days. One was that of a teamster who mercilessly whipped his team, drawing a very heavy load, to force them forward on the ferry-boat Lark, that they might in turn drive another man's team, which was blocking the passage, out of the way. A word to the man or at most taking the abstructing team by the head and leading them to one side would have removed the difficulty, but the teamster instead lashed his own poor horses almost into a frenzy to accomplish the purpose. Another case occurred up town where a man who is considered a good citizen and a fair dealer, deliberately pounded his horse till it fell down, bleeding and trembling in the street. We are furthermore informed that this man makes a practice of outrageously beating his horses, and if this is so it is time the law taught him that "a merciful man is merciful to his beast," if he hasn't learn't it from his creed. Officer Tammany can have the names of both these parties, and if he will walk up or down Union or Hasbrouck avenues almost any day he can find enough more cases to keep his hands full for some time to come; and if he will take the matter up fearlessly he will have the support of all decent men—and the other kind he needn't care about.

Good Understanding.

We have all of us heard of and a good many seen "the big boot in Chatham street," and we acknowledge that it is pretty immense; but there is a pair of brogans being built in a shoe shop in Ferry street that will make formidable rivals of that celebrated piece of Crispinism. These shoes are of such Brobdingnagian proportions that the boss shoemaker has to enter them by climbing up a step-ladder and then letting himself down into the mysterious depth below. An assistant stays on the outside and drives the nails through and he clinches them inside. People who had a glimpse of the monstrosities as they passed the door gave them little thought, as they took them for Saratoga trunks, and on that hypothesis there was nothing extraordinary in the size. The shoemaker is in trouble, though, now. He has the shoes about finished, but he don't know how to get them off his hands and on the owner's feet. One proposition is that the roof be lifted off and the man can then put the shoes on, lift them out and stride off. Another suggestion is that the front of the building be knocked out, a way constructed down to the dock and the shoes launched overboard, when the owner might hang his feet off the wharf and tie the shoes on. This is non est comatibus (we've been reading coroner's inquests lately, and that accounts for the Latin), however, because of the narrowness of the creek, which wouldn't permit the brogans to be warped around. Those shoes will have to be utilized as coal bins on the Company's dock.

Got What He Deserved.

A couple of fellows from Whiteport drove into the stable yard of Hamilton's Hotel on Friday afternoon. Both were intoxicated, and in that reckless, devil-may care state intoxication frequently superinduces in the minds of men of ordinary intelligence or bravery. So they thought it would be a fine thing to try and run that stable, a work they began by driving in through the door, capsizing several articles standing about and inaugurating an animation among the horses, wagons and stable men. But when remonstrated with they jumped from the wagon, peeled off their coats and intimated their intention of wading through the company there assembled, a performance which was suddenly ended by an unlooked for resistance on the part of the gentleman in charge of the stables, who handled his biceps and the butt end of a horsewhip to such good effect that both men were soon put hors de combat and laid out with swelled and bloody heads. The name of one is David Spear. His companion was a Dutchman, whose name we didn't learn. Now we hope they'll go home and ponder over their deeds and the lesson taught them.

Commencement Exercises of Grammar School No. 7.

The above-named city school held its commencement yesterday afternoon. A perfect crowd of the patrons and friends of the school was in attendance. Although the programme was very long, the audience sat intently interested to the close. The efficient and accomplished Principal, Mr. C. M. Ryon, was abundant in labors for the comfort of his visitors. The pupils all did well; none failed while many gave promise of future scholarship and power in particular directions. In the matter of reading, several young ladies showed both native ability and the great care taken by their teachers in training them. Every department of the school acquitted itself with marked credit in exercises peculiar to each. It is unnecessary to wish that this school were better known, for its accommodations are already crowded to excess; but we do wish that the public would learn to appreciate and better compensate the hard and intelligent work bestowed upon its children there by Mr. Ryon and his competent corps of assistants. Our limited space debars us from specializing some of yesterday's efforts, which otherwise we should be glad to do. We speak only the sentiment of all in saying that Grammar School No. 7 is one of the best managed of its class in the state.

A Phenomenon.

Passersby on the creek were very much puzzled at a singular phenomenon above Mr. Crane's residence at Ponckhockie on Friday; a peculiar-looking object being suspended over the roof, and its eccentric movements, distinctly seen against the grey clouds, peremptorily arrested the gaze of every one who turned their eyes toward the fair Ponckhockie scenery. They looked and wondered, and wondered and looked, as the strange figure gyrated this way and that, now moving up and then down, and gave up guessing in despair and wonderment, until one passenger, a green countryman from way back, ejaculated "Wall I swow! if that air thing that looks so much like a snappin' turkle moving to a fish line aint a human!" And so it was—a fellow swinging to the flag-staff engaged in the work of embellishing it with a fresh coat of paint.

Religious.

Professor John Dewitt of New Brunswick will preach in the Second Reformed Church on Sunday morning and evening. Professor Dewitt is considered a very eloquent preacher. A committee from this Church go to Peekskill to-day to extend a call to Rev. James Demarest, Jr., to the pastorate of the Church.

Dedication of a Church.

The M. E. Church at South Woodstock was dedicated on Thursday, 25th inst. Rev. D. D. Lindsley preached in the morning and Rev. J. J. Dean in the evening. The sum of $900 was asked for to pay the debt, whereupon the people present handed over $1,000, which happy result greatly pleased everybody.

Rhinebeck & Connecticut Railroad.

The cars are now running from Rhinebeck to Ancram. This enterprise will form an important interest in eastern Columbia, says the Republican. We were at the terminus at Rhinebeck recently and saw several car loads o produce come in from Gallatinville. We inquired the freight on hay and learned that it was seven cents per hundred, or $1.40 per ton. Heretofore from that section hay has been transported by the farmers to Tivoli or Barrytown, a distance of about twenty miles, making forty miles for the round trip and occupying from ten to fifteen hours. As there are stations at Mount Ross, Jackson Corners and Elizaville the railroad will drain that country of freight which will be carried to the river at Rhinebeck, instead of going to Tivoli and Barrytown as formerly, and the result will be that the freight business will be greatly damaged at the former places while the line at Rhinebeck will be largely increased in business. The railroad is a flank movement on Tivoli and Barrytown, and also in a small degree on Hudson. As will be seen from the rates above-mentioned, the farmers will cease to transport their own hay and other produce when it can be sent by rail at so moderate a rate. They cannot afford it themselves. Taking into account a day's work for a man, the use of a team and the heavy wear on wagons and harness from three to five dollars a day must be counted as the offset to the $1.40. We learn that the freighters at Tivoli and Barrytown are much exercised in mind over their loss of business, but there is no help for it—trade will follow the most feasible channels. Coal from Rondout will be the chief traffic of the road, and this will divert some of the business now done by the Boston road.

A Poet's Last Effusion.

We saw a letter from one of our best American poets to his little "ten-year-old," who is spending the summer on the Weinbergh, which ended in this manner:

" Eat, boy, eat!
Bread and meat.
Eat and grow fat;
I want you to be that—
For a boy that ranks among the first-raters
Must fill himself up with meat and potaters.
Be a good boy,
(I know that you can)
For a good little boy
Will make a good man.
PAPA DICK,
(With a big stick.)"

Election of Officers.

At a regular meeting of Aretas Lodge No. 172, I. O. of O. F., held on Wednesday evening, June 24th, the following officers were elected: James Whittaker, N. G.; Marks Jacobs, V. G.; Charles L. Santer, Secretary; Joseph Tubby, Treasurer.

Scarcity of Work.

A Captain of one of the D. & H. canal boats states that he could have brought a boatload of men from Rondout last trip who would have been willing to work for their board if employment could be found for them here.—Honesdale Herald.

OUR FREE PARLIAMENT.

The First Reformed Church Wall.

GOLDEN HILL, June 26th, 1874.

EDITOR FREEMAN: In your issue of to-day I notice an unintentional, but quite serious, misstatement. It occurs in your thoughtful paragraph drawing attention to the dangerous condition of the First Reformed Church of Kingston proper.

My father, the late Whiting Weeks, was not the builder of that edifice; nor did he make any reference to it shortly before his death. It was erected, I think, by Mr. E. T. Van Nostrand; my father, however, did build the Second Reformed Church, on Fair street, and from this I presume came your mistake. My father was a builder far too careful, accurate and skilled to put up any structure on a defective foundation. In regard to the church in question, and the extent of his business relations therewith, the following letter gives evidence; it was written, as you see, over thirteen years ago:

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 11th, 1861.

WHITING WEEKS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—At a meeting of the Consistory of the First Dutch Church, held last evening, the undersigned were appointed a committee to examine and report the condition of the church building; more particularly of the east wall of said church, and for that purpose to employ some competent person to aid them in that examination. The committee have decided to ask you to come to Kingston and aid them in this examination, at your earliest convenience.

You will please advise me, and name the day you can be in town;—this week, if YOU CAN; next week, SURE. Yours respectfully, J. E. OSTRANDER.

WM. T. SWART,
JAMES KIERSTED, } Committee.
J. E. OSTRANDER,

My father was living at that time in Staatsburgh, and I have not his reply to this letter at hand, but as the committee, all of whom are still living, I believe, will remember he said after a careful consideration of the subject, he was of opinion, so far as he was enabled to judge by appearances, that the church could not with certainty be considered safe; that it was apparently the great weight of the vaulted roof which held it together; that it might not stand a year; that it might stand twenty years, possibly longer; but he did not think it would be trustworthy longer than twenty years.

One or two years ago, as he did not wish in case an accident occurred to have the responsibility for it rest in any way upon him, he re-stated in substance, the above words to one of the Consistory.

My father was a man of quiet and considerate judgment, the term of years he settled upon is slipping away unnoticed, the responsible parties will do well to remember his words, that we may not be visited by a catastrophe worse than that of Richmond, or Roxbury, or Syracuse. Yours, very truly,

EDWARD OLIN WEEKS.

The First Reformed Church Wall.

KINGSTON, June 26th, 1874.

EDITOR FREEMAN.—In your issue of to-day, under heading of "A Warning," your correspondent refers to the wall of the First Reformed Church of Kingston as being unsafe, and that Mr. Weeks, the mason who built the church, (which by the way is incorrect, as Mr. Weeks did not build the church), before his death stated that it was very unsafe and might go down at any moment. The writer of the article could not have been well informed on the subject, as you will see by the following:

On the records of our church we find under date of April 27, 1861, that a committee composed of Whiting Weeks, Edward Brink and John P. Folant, was appointed to examine the walls, and their report was that there was no danger to be feared from it.

Again to-day, June 26, 1874, Messrs. Edward Brink, William Darling, John R. Freer and John P. Folant, all practical mechanics, in presence of several members of the Consistory very thoroughly examined every point and authorize the use of their names in saying that the building is safe in every respect, and that there has been no yielding of the walls since the last examination, thirteen years ago.

Besides, Mr. John P. Folant, a member of the church, has examined it twice a year for twenty years, with no perceptible change in the wall. Mr. Darling and Mr. Brink, who worked upon the church during the whole period of the construction, both say that when the east wall was put up it was out of line as it now is, viz., seven and one-half inches at the top.

ROBERT WILSON,
Church Warden.

How is This, Charles?

MR. EDITOR:—You have undoubtedly seen in the New Paltz Times of this week an article entitled "Hang 'Em," written in that chaste and elegant style for which the Times is noted, and bearing various ear-marks to signify its authorship. It is not to our purpose to criticise the language, however, or in any way to demur to the style of composition, for people who don't write very often for the newspapers cannot be supposed to possess the ease, polish and clearness of a regular scribbler. But the article aforesaid is of interest as showing to the close observer of the Times' conduct the direction the wind is blowing just now—the only question unsettled being as to what amount the wind blows. In plain English, Charlie, how big was that roll of greenbacks?

CITY NOTES.

—Lots of toads on Hasbrouck avenue after the shower.

—There are a great many strange faces in town—summer visitors or travelers.

—The Board of Health made the rounds of a portion of the Strand on Friday.

—A steer escaped from the shambles on Friday, and made a sensation in Mill street.

—People begin to conclude that those new horse cars, like other good things, come slow.

—The biggest pair of shoes in town was displayed by a Ferry street shoemaker on Friday.

—The prospect is that it is going to be a mighty dull day here on the Fourth, more shame to us!

—There is a "concourse of sweet smells" from the gutters of portions of Union avenue just now. Whar's the Health Officer?

—Considering the dullness of business and the presence of the panic, the number of new buildings going up in the city is remarkably large.

—A down-town merchant planted a lot of cherry-stones in front of his place of business on Friday. But it's no use, you can't make even grass grow in Rondout streets.

—The Newburgh Journal wants to know what has become of Tom Collins. We don't know. When last seen or heard of here he was wanting to buy an L. Green plough.

—The German women who labor in the fields and gardens of the suburbs may now be seen early in the morning as they "shoulder hoes and march away" to their daily work.

—Strangers passing the new City Hall are often heard inquiring who is building such a large residence. They ought to go inside and look at the lock-up and other municipal fixin's.

—How careless some people are! Van Deusen Brothers leave their old safe standing out on the sidewalk night after night, and by-and-by some one will come along, pick it up and carry it off.

—George Dean's handsome little propeller is considered a great desideratum for small parties who wish to enjoy a pleasant sail. It has been engaged by a lot of young people for the Fourth.

—The dustiest piece of road in the city is Union avenue between Newkirk avenue and Stuyvesant street. It takes about three hours to work up the deepest mud into the most palpable dust there.

—That was a little family unpleasantness on Friday when an elderly woman walking along with a young one suddenly stopped and accused the young woman of having stolen her pocket-book. It was touching to observe the filial feeling expressed in the young woman's remark—"Well, by ——, you'll have to prove that, you —— old ——."

—We believe the good health of our young ladies is due in great measure to their early rising and active exercise. A ramble in the opening hours of day will reveal many of them at work among flowers and vines. This sort of thing gives a young girl an appetite for breakfast that would horrify a pale and faded ball-room belle.

—The Ellenville Journal says "The Journal is set up by the handsomest young men in the county." No you don't, Mr. Journal. The Freeman has a corps of compositors whose beauty is of that dazzling order that they never turn on the full effect at once. When they get their good clothes on "they have to take a dog along to keep the girls away." And they're some on "settin' up," too—take it either way.

—We are glad to notice another improvement and also the indication of the influence for good that The Freeman exists. We didn't expect such a thorough reformation in that office of Abbey & Son just because we happened to mention something about cobwebs; but we are pleased to see the rejuvenating work of the whitewash brush, the purifying influence of the mop and a general slickin' up all round. One more modest suggestion—hadn't you better fresco those bare beams in the storehouse? It would add greatly to the aesthetic effect, and make more of a fitness, so to speak.

—These pleasant afternoons are just right for sailing on the creek or river, and no matter how hot it is on shore, there is always a brisk wind upon the water that delightfully moderates the temperature and sends the blood merrily through the system. We wonder that more of our people do not enjoy the exhilarating and life-giving recreation of sailing. Almost any afternoon a short cruise can be taken on some of the many tow-boats plying in and out of the harbor; then there are the Martin and Eagle, the Cornell and Baldwin. One can take a trip down on the former and meet the latter on their up trip at Newburgh or some other point, or can take the night boats at certain states of the tide and meet the Powell at Poughkeepsie. Such pleasant little excursions relieve the monotony of business or house work, and wonderfully invigorate one. Even a trip across the river and back on the Lark makes a man feel better.

A KINGSTON LAD IN RUSSIA.

Mr. Augustus Hayes Does Moscow.

Mr. Augustus Hayes, son of William M. Hayes of this city, who went to Europe in the spring of 1873 and has been traveling on the continent and attending school at Hanover in Prussia, has made a tour of Russia, Denmark, Norway and Sweden. He will return home about the 1st of August.

In a letter received a few days ago by his friends in this city he gives a description of his journey through a portion of Russia which some of the readers of The Freeman will no doubt find quite interesting: "As we entered Russia we found the land level and generally barren. We passed through a number of small Russian, or perhaps they might better be called Polish villages, some of which consisted merely of a collection of huts, roughly built, with roofs covered with ungainly looking shingles or thatched with straw. The people who inhabited these places were clothed in ragged, common furs, the coat being long and generally belted at the waist. On their feet were fur stockings, bound to their legs with strings, or sandals woven with rushes and leather. They seemed to be very sluggish and ignorant, and live almost entirely on a hard, coarse, black bread, and a kind of thick, indescribable milk.

The first stopping-place we came to was Warsaw, which is beautifully situated on the River Vistula, but is of very little interest to travelers. Here we first saw a genuine Russian church, with its many gilded domes, that glittered in the bright sunlight and made the sight a novel as well as beautiful one. We next passed through Smolensk, a city somewhat noted in the history of Europe, and after a ride of 2,000 miles were very glad to catch our first sight of the domes of Moscow in the distance. We first visited the Hermitage Gardens, a beautiful park devoted to amusements, such as singing, instrumental music, gymnastics, foot-racing, swimming races, &c.

The Kremlin was the next object of curiosity. This is a large enclosure, in which is situated the Emperor's palace, a number of churches, a cathedral, the tower of John the Great, a convent, and the arsenal. Its circumference is about 7,300 feet, and the entrances are by five different gates, all of which are well guarded. The buildings of the Kremlin have at different times been destroyed by fire, but the great wall that encircles it is still preserved in its ancient form. We made a visit to the Sacristy of the Holy Patriarchs, and found it contained a number of objects of great antiquity. There were a great many robes said to have been worn by the former patriarchs, some of which are so heavily laden with precious stones they weigh from fifty to sixty pounds—some are entirely covered with pearls.

The Cathedral of Assumption, we found like most of the Russian churches, rich in gold, silver and precious stones. The emeralds alone in one picture are worth over $50,000. In this place the Emperors of Russia are coronated. Near by is the tower of John the Great, which consists of five stories, four being octangular and the fifth cylindrical. The height is some 325 feet, and in it are suspended thirty-four bells of different sizes, the largest weighing 128,000 pounds, while the two smallest are made of silver and are very rich in tone. From the top of this tower the traveler has a fine view of the city, which covers a tract of country of over twenty miles. The streets are rough and irregular, and in fact it is said there is not a single straight street in it. The most prominent objects are the cathedrals, which tower above the houses, 370 in all, and form rather a beautiful picture, as each church has from three to nine gilded domes that look like great balls of fire in the sunlight.

Before leaving the place we paid a visit to the great bell, the largest in the world, which is nineteen feet three inches in height, sixty feet nine inches in circumference, and two feet thick. The total weight is 444,000 pounds. This bell fell from the tower in 1737, and broke out of it a small (?) piece, a little over six feet in length, weighing 220,000 pounds.

We found while in Moscow the great custom with all classes is the drinking of tea. Wherever a Russian goes he orders tea, which means a little pot of tea and another of hot water. A glass is poured half full from the tea pot, and then filled with hot water. In the course of an evening the number of glasses made away with is enormous. In place of our lager beer saloons, here they have tea saloons, where the people gather to drink tea and smoke. A piece of lemon is generally put in the tea instead of milk, which gives it rather a pleasant flavor, and the liquid is drank so hot the throats of these people must be made of cast-iron to stand it. Porters and beggars always ask for tea money when they make a demand of the stranger.

In this city is a riding-school. The building is 560 by 158 feet, and the roof is held without columns, being one of the largest spans without supports in the world.

After leaving Moscow we went direct to St. Petersburg. One of the first places we visited was the palace, and in this found one of the most interesting sights was that of the room containing the crown jewels. The great Orloff diamond, which surmounts the Imperial scepter, can here be seen. It is very large, and weighs 194¾ carats, while the largest diamond in England weighs only about 186 carats. On the top of the crown is a cross formed of diamonds supported by a large uncut ruby. This ruby in turn is supported by eleven diamonds, while on each side of the central arch is a hoop of thirty-eight very large and perfect pearls. The crown is indeed a fortune in itself, and is extremely brilliant with its multitude of sparkling stones.

One of the most notable places to visit in St. Petersburg is the Hermitage Museum and Gallery, which is filled with an immense collection of works of art, antiquities, sculptures, a library containing all the principal works, both ancient and modern, and over 200,000 engravings. The gallery of paintings is only excelled by that of Dresden, and contains at present 1,635 selected paintings. These are from Raphael, Rembrandt, Rubens, Murillo, Van Dyke, Corregio, and in fact the touch of the brush of every great painter the world has known can be seen in this gallery of art. It is impossible to describe them, but there is a fascinating beauty about some of these pictures that can only be appreciated when seen.

After leaving the gallery of paintings we entered Peter the Great's gallery, which contains all the pieces or specimens of that deceased magnate's handicraft, which are not of the best workmanship and only of value because of the place which the maker occupies in history.

We took a small boat and crossed the river Neva to the fortress of Peter and Paul, the cathedral being the great point of interest. Its tower is 387 feet high, and within the walls of the building are the ashes of the dead sovereigns of Russia. These walls are covered with old flags captured on different battle fields.

On the bank of this river is Peter the Great's cottage, which was the first palace erected by Peter. Its length is fifty-four feet and breadth twenty feet, and there are two rooms and a kitchen. In one of the rooms is Peter's chair, which is made so the occupant must sit astride and lean his arms on what would ordinarily be the back. On this back is a board to answer the purposes of a writing desk. The Emperor of that day certainly lived very plainly, at least in comparison to the luxury and magnificence of the present generation of rulers."

Mr. Hayes further says, according to the statements of several Americans who are doing business in Russia, that country is a place where an energetic, shrewd American can become a millionaire in the course of a few years, and he relates the circumstance of two men from the south who amassed large fortunes and lost them during our civil war, but who returned to Russia, and are now nearly as wealthy as before. The distance from Berlin to Moscow is over 2,000 miles, and the party traveled it in two days and seventeen hours.

Cruelty to Animals.

We recently announced that Constable Tammany had been appointed agent here for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. We were heartily glad that such an appointment was made, for if there is a place on earth where more outrageous cruelty is practiced on dumb beasts, especially horses, than in this pretty city of ours, we have yet to read a description of it. So there is abundant opportunity to exercise the functions of an agent of the society above mentioned, and we shall expect the law in this respect to be rigidly enforced. Just now the business of arresting criminals—no matter how many offences are committed—seems to be rather dull, so Constable Tammany can turn his attention toward arresting drivers possessing far more of brute nature than the poor animals they pitilessly belabor. Our attention has been called to two cases within as many days. One was that of a teamster who mercilessly whipped his team, drawing a very heavy load, to force them forward on the ferry-boat Lark, that they might in turn drive another man's team, which was blocking the passage, out of the way. A word to the man or at most taking the abstructing team by the head and leading them to one side would have removed the difficulty, but the teamster instead lashed his own poor horses almost into a frenzy to accomplish the purpose. Another case occurred up town where a man who is considered a good citizen and a fair dealer, deliberately pounded his horse till it fell down, bleeding and trembling in the street. We are furthermore informed that this man makes a practice of outrageously beating his horses, and if this is so it is time the law taught him that "a merciful man is merciful to his beast," if he hasn't learn't it from his creed. Officer Tammany can have the names of both these parties, and if he will walk up or down Union or Hasbrouck avenues almost any day he can find enough more cases to keep his hands full for some time to come; and if he will take the matter up fearlessly he will have the support of all decent men—and the other kind he needn't care about.

Good Understanding.

We have all of us heard of and a good many seen "the big boot in Chatham street," and we acknowledge that it is pretty immense; but there is a pair of brogans being built in a shoe shop in Ferry street that will make formidable rivals of that celebrated piece of Crispinism. These shoes are of such Brobdingnagian proportions that the boss shoemaker has to enter them by climbing up a step-ladder and then letting himself down into the mysterious depth below. An assistant stays on the outside and drives the nails through and he clinches them inside. People who had a glimpse of the monstrosities as they passed the door gave them little thought, as they took them for Saratoga trunks, and on that hypothesis there was nothing extraordinary in the size. The shoemaker is in trouble, though, now. He has the shoes about finished, but he don't know how to get them off his hands and on the owner's feet. One proposition is that the roof be lifted off and the man can then put the shoes on, lift them out and stride off. Another suggestion is that the front of the building be knocked out, a way constructed down to the dock and the shoes launched overboard, when the owner might hang his feet off the wharf and tie the shoes on. This is non est comatibus (we've been reading coroner's inquests lately, and that accounts for the Latin), however, because of the narrowness of the creek, which wouldn't permit the brogans to be warped around. Those shoes will have to be utilized as coal bins on the Company's dock.

Got What He Deserved.

A couple of fellows from Whiteport drove into the stable yard of Hamilton's Hotel on Friday afternoon. Both were intoxicated, and in that reckless, devil-may care state intoxication frequently superinduces in the minds of men of ordinary intelligence or bravery. So they thought it would be a fine thing to try and run that stable, a work they began by driving in through the door, capsizing several articles standing about and inaugurating an animation among the horses, wagons and stable men. But when remonstrated with they jumped from the wagon, peeled off their coats and intimated their intention of wading through the company there assembled, a performance which was suddenly ended by an unlooked for resistance on the part of the gentleman in charge of the stables, who handled his biceps and the butt end of a horsewhip to such good effect that both men were soon put hors de combat and laid out with swelled and bloody heads. The name of one is David Spear. His companion was a Dutchman, whose name we didn't learn. Now we hope they'll go home and ponder over their deeds and the lesson taught them.

Commencement Exercises of Grammar School No. 7.

The above-named city school held its commencement yesterday afternoon. A perfect crowd of the patrons and friends of the school was in attendance. Although the programme was very long, the audience sat intently interested to the close. The efficient and accomplished Principal, Mr. C. M. Ryon, was abundant in labors for the comfort of his visitors. The pupils all did well; none failed while many gave promise of future scholarship and power in particular directions. In the matter of reading, several young ladies showed both native ability and the great care taken by their teachers in training them. Every department of the school acquitted itself with marked credit in exercises peculiar to each. It is unnecessary to wish that this school were better known, for its accommodations are already crowded to excess; but we do wish that the public would learn to appreciate and better compensate the hard and intelligent work bestowed upon its children there by Mr. Ryon and his competent corps of assistants. Our limited space debars us from specializing some of yesterday's efforts, which otherwise we should be glad to do. We speak only the sentiment of all in saying that Grammar School No. 7 is one of the best managed of its class in the state.

A Phenomenon.

Passersby on the creek were very much puzzled at a singular phenomenon above Mr. Crane's residence at Ponckhockie on Friday; a peculiar-looking object being suspended over the roof, and its eccentric movements, distinctly seen against the grey clouds, peremptorily arrested the gaze of every one who turned their eyes toward the fair Ponckhockie scenery. They looked and wondered, and wondered and looked, as the strange figure gyrated this way and that, now moving up and then down, and gave up guessing in despair and wonderment, until one passenger, a green countryman from way back, ejaculated "Wall I swow! if that air thing that looks so much like a snappin' turkle moving to a fish line aint a human!" And so it was—a fellow swinging to the flag-staff engaged in the work of embellishing it with a fresh coat of paint.

Religious.

Professor John Dewitt of New Brunswick will preach in the Second Reformed Church on Sunday morning and evening. Professor Dewitt is considered a very eloquent preacher. A committee from this Church go to Peekskill to-day to extend a call to Rev. James Demarest, Jr., to the pastorate of the Church.

Dedication of a Church.

The M. E. Church at South Woodstock was dedicated on Thursday, 25th inst. Rev. D. D. Lindsley preached in the morning and Rev. J. J. Dean in the evening. The sum of $900 was asked for to pay the debt, whereupon the people present handed over $1,000, which happy result greatly pleased everybody.

Rhinebeck & Connecticut Railroad.

The cars are now running from Rhinebeck to Ancram. This enterprise will form an important interest in eastern Columbia, says the Republican. We were at the terminus at Rhinebeck recently and saw several car loads o produce come in from Gallatinville. We inquired the freight on hay and learned that it was seven cents per hundred, or $1.40 per ton. Heretofore from that section hay has ben transported by the farmers to Tivoli or Barrytown, a distance of about twenty miles, making forty miles for the round trip and occupying from ten to fifteen hours. As there are stations at Mount Ross, Jackson Corners and Elizaville the railroad will drain that country of freight which will be carried to the river at Rhinebeck, instead of going to Tivoli and Barrytown as formerly, and the result will be that the freight business will be greatly damaged at the former places while the line at Rhinebeck will be largely increased in business. The railroad is a flank movement on Tivoli and Barrytown, and also in a small degree on Hudson. As will be seen from the rates above-mentioned, the farmers will cease to transport their own hay and other produce when it can be sent by rail at so moderate a rate. They cannot afford it themselves. Taking into account a day's work for a man, the use of a team and the heavy wear on wagons and harness from three to five dollars a day must be counted as the offset to the $1.40. We learn that the freighters at Tivoli and Barrytown are much exercised in mind over their loss of business, but there is no help for it—trade will follow the most feasible channels. Coal from Rondout will be the chief traffic of the road, and this will divert some of the business now done by the Boston road.

A Poet's Last Effusion.

We saw a letter from one of our best American poets to his little "ten-year-old," who is spending the summer on the Weinbergh, which ended in this manner:

> "Eat, boy, eat!
> Bread and meat.
> Eat and grow fat;
> I want you to be that—
> For a boy that ranks among the first-raters
> Must fill himself up with meat and potaters.
> Be a good boy,
> (I know that you can)
> For a good little boy
> Will make a good man.
> PAPA DICK,
> (With a big stick.)"

Election of Officers.

Fourth of July.

South Rondout comes to time as usual on the Fourth, and will have a jolly pic-nic at German Hill, under the management of Jacob Fox. Music, dancing and refreshments and South Rondout's bright-eyed daughters to grace the scene! Of course there'll be lots of fun.

Scarcity of Work.

A Captain of one of the D. & H. canal boats states that he could have brought a boatload of men from Rondout last trip who would have been willing to work for their board if employment could be found for them here.—Honesdale Herald.

OUR FREE PARLIAMENT.

The First Reformed Church Wall.

GOLDEN HILL, June 26th, 1874.

EDITOR FREEMAN: In your issue of to-day I notice an unintentional, but quite serious, misstatement. It occurs in your thoughtful paragraph drawing attention to the dangerous condition of the First Reformed Church of Kingston proper.

My father, the late Whiting Weeks, was not the builder of that edifice; nor did he make any reference to it shortly before his death. It was erected, I think, by Mr. E. T. Van Nostrand; my father, however, did build the Second Reformed Church, on Fair street, and from this I presume came your mistake. My father was a builder far too careful, accurate and skilled to put up any structure on a defective foundation. In regard to the church in question, and the extent of his business relations therewith, the following letter gives evidence; it was written, as you see, over thirteen years ago:

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 11th, 1861.

WHITING WEEKS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—At a meeting of the Consistory of the First Dutch Church, held last evening, the undersigned were appointed a committee to examine and report the condition of the church building; more particularly of the east wall of said church, and for that purpose to employ some competent person to aid them in that examination. The committee have decided to ask you to come to Kingston and aid them in this examination, at your earliest convenience.

You will please advise me, and name the day you can be in town;—this week, if YOU CAN; next week, SURE. Yours respectfully, J. E. OSTRANDER.

WM. T. SWART,
JAMES KIERSTED, } Committee.
J. E. OSTRANDER,

My father was living at that time in Staatsburgh, and I have not his reply to this letter at hand, but as the committee, all of whom are still living, I believe, will remember he said after a careful consideration of the subject, he was of opinion, so far as he was enabled to judge by appearances, that the church could not with certainty be considered safe; that it was apparently the great weight of the vaulted roof which held it together; that it might not stand a year; that it might stand twenty years, possibly longer; but he did not think it would be trustworthy longer than twenty years.

One or two years ago, as he did not wish in case an accident occurred to have the responsibility for it rest in any way upon him, he re-stated in substance, the above words to one of the Consistory.

My father was a man of quiet and considerate judgment, the term of years he settled upon is slipping away unnoticed, the responsible parties will do well to remember his words, that we may not be visited by a catastrophe worse than that of Richmond, or Roxbury, or Syracuse. Yours, very truly,

EDWARD OLIN WEEKS.

The First Reformed Church Wall.

KINGSTON, June 26th, 1874.

EDITOR FREEMAN.—In your issue of to-day, under heading of "A Warning," your correspondent refers to the wall of the First Reformed Church of Kingston as being unsafe, and that Mr. Weeks, the mason who built the church, (which by the way is incorrect, as Mr. Weeks did not build the church), before his death stated that it was very unsafe and might go down at any moment. The writer of the article could not have been well informed on the subject, as you will see by the following:

On the records of our church we find under date of April 27, 1861, that a committee composed of Whiting Weeks, Edward Brink and John P. Folant, was appointed to examine the walls, and their report was that there was no danger to be feared from it.

Again to-day, June 26, 1874, Messrs. Edward Brink, William Darling, John R. Freer and John P. Folant, all practical mechanics, in presence of several members of the Consistory very thoroughly examined every point and authorize the use of their names in saying that the building is safe in every respect, and that there has been no yielding of the walls since the last examination, thirteen years ago.

Besides, Mr. John P. Folant, a member of the church, has examined it twice a year for twenty years, with no perceptible change in the wall. Mr. Darling and Mr. Brink, who worked upon the church during the whole period of the construction, both say that when the east wall was put up it was out of line as it now is, viz., seven and one-half inches at the top.

ROBERT WILSON,
Church Warden.

How is This, Charles?

MR. EDITOR:—You have undoubtedly seen in the New Paltz Times of this week an article entitled "Hang 'Em," written in that chaste and elegant style for which the Times is noted, and bearing various ear-marks to signify its authorship. It is not to our purpose to criticise the language, however, or in any way to demur to the style of composition, for people who don't write very often for the newspapers cannot be supposed to possess the ease, polish and clearness of a regular scribbler. But the article aforesaid is of interest as showing to the close observer of the Times' conduct the direction the wind is blowing just now—the only question unsettled being as to what amount the wind blows. In plain English, Charlie, how big was that roll of greenbacks?

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL — DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA — EUREKA — VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked. "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

EASTERN DIVISION AND BRANCHES

The direct and popular Route from all parts of ORANGE and ULSTER Counties to NEW YORK CITY.
And the great through route to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago, Cincinnati, and all points WEST.

Rondout, May 1st, 1874.

The attention of the public is respectfully invited to our Spring opening of Carpets, Dress Fabrics, General Dry Goods and Housekeeping Articles, and we confidently believe that a fair inspection will demonstrate our Stock to be second to none in this city.

These goods are of recent purchase and our best judgment has been exerted in selection of styles, varieties and adaption to the needs of this vicinity.

Every advantage to be gained from buying for Cash, and in discounts and differences on time bills, has been realized by us on these invoices, and as the old axiom "Goods well bought are half sold" is still a truism, we count on an active and satisfactory trade.

The practice of our firm in regard to marking profits is generally known, but we reiterate it here, as aiming for a large trade at small advances and with quick returns, rather than the old style of full profits, moderate sales, extended credits, and old goods held for original prices.

In the line of Carpets, we deem ourselves specially fortunate in having made almost an entire clearance at our annual stock taking (March 1st), and thus are not encumbered with old patterns, or hampered by necessity of sale of last year's goods at actual loss, but can offer our friends entirely fresh goods at prices now current. These goods are not bought in lots at few places, but culled from every leading stock in New York City that holds out an attraction or makes an extra inducement on price; and for variety, desirableness and cheapness, they are unexcelled in this city.

Our entire stock on main floor is unusually complete and attractive, and it will afford us pleasure to show you these Goods at your earliest convenience.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

By Mrs. T. B. H. Stenhouse, for 25 years wife of a Mormon High Priest. With an introduction by HARRIET BEECHER STOWE. Two years ago the author wrote a pamphlet on Polygamy which excited the Mormon newspapers to sneeringly invite her to write a book and "Tell It All." Eminent men and women urged her to accept the challenge, and "Tell It All" is the result. EASTERN DIVISION
AND BRANCHES

The direct and popular Route from all parts of ORANGE and ULSTER Counties to NEW YORK CITY.

And the great through route to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago, Cincinnati, and all points WEST.

Rondout, May 1st, 1874.

The attention of the public is respectfully invited to our Spring opening of Carpets, Dress Fabrics, General Dry Goods and Housekeeping Articles, and we confidently believe that a fair inspection will demonstrate our Stock to be second to none in this city.

These goods are of recent purchase and our best judgment has been exerted in selection of styles, varieties and adaption to the needs of this vicinity.

Every advantage to be gained from buying for Cash, and in discounts and differences on time bills, has been realized by us on these invoices, and as the old axiom "Goods well bought are half sold" is still a truism, we count on an active and satisfactory trade.

The practice of our firm in regard to marking profits is generally known, but we reiterate it here, as aiming for a large trade at small advances and with quick returns, rather than the old style of full profits, moderate sales, extended credits, and old goods held for original prices.

In the line of Carpets, we deem ourselves specially fortunate in having made almost an entire clearance at our annual stock taking (March 1st), and thus are not encumbered with old patterns, or hampered by necessity of sale of last year's goods at actual loss, but can offer our friends entirely fresh goods at prices now current. These goods are not bought in lots at few places, but culled from every leading stock in New York City that holds out an attraction or makes an extra inducement on price; and for variety, desirableness and cheapness, they are unexcelled in this city.

Our entire stock on main floor is unusually complete and attractive, and it will afford us pleasure to show you these Goods at your earliest convenience.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE FREE FROM ALCOHOL
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked. "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

EASTERN DIVISION AND BRANCHES

The direct and popular Route from all parts of ORANGE and ULSTER Counties to NEW YORK CITY.
And the great through route to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago, Cincinnati, and all points WEST.

Rondout, May 1st, 1874.

The attention of the public is respectfully invited to our Spring opening of Carpets, Dress Fabrics, General Dry Goods and Housekeeping Articles, and we confidently believe that a fair inspection will demonstrate our Stock to be second to none in this city.

These goods are of recent purchase and our best judgment has been exerted in selection of styles, varieties and adaption to the needs of this vicinity.

Every advantage to be gained from buying for Cash, and in discounts and differences on time bills, has been realized by us on these invoices, and as the old axiom "Goods well bought are half sold" is still a truism, we count on an active and satisfactory trade.

The practice of our firm in regard to marking profits is generally known, but we reiterate it here, as aiming for a large trade at small advances and with quick returns, rather than the old style of full profits. moderate sales, extended credits, and old goods held for original prices.

In the line of Carpets, we deem ourselves specially fortunate in having made almost an entire clearance at our annual stock taking (March 1st), and thus are not encumbered with old patterns, or hampered by necessity of sale of last year's goods at actual loss, but can offer our friends entirely fresh goods at prices now current. These goods are not bought in lots at few places, but culled from every leading stock in New York City that holds out an attraction or makes an extra inducement on price; and for variety, desirableness and cheapness, they are unexcelled in this city.

Our entire stock on main floor is unusually complete and attractive, and it will afford us pleasure to show you these Goods at your earliest convenience.
